WISCONSIN POLISH COMPANY PIECE IN VARIEGATED ARMY

Shepherd Finds American Army of Militia More Composite Than Allied Army at Saloniki

POLISH COMPANY IS MODEL

For Three Years in Succession Body Has Taken First Prize in State for Field Work

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD
(Staff Correspondent of the United Press.)

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, July 21.—Uncle Sam has dug his ancient storm coat—the militia—out of the attic of peace.

On the hot ironing board of Texas sands he is spreading it out for examination, and under the hot iron of discipline he is trying to make it war proof. It is musty, wrinkled, creased with seams, ripped here and there, but the material is superfine. True enough, the material doesn't like the operation. It would rather be out in the storm doing its work. It asks every reporter, or other supposedly wise man it sees, "Aren't you going to have war with Mexico?"

But storm coats must be overhauled whether the coat likes it or not. It is all according to the man who has to depend on it in rough weather. The texture of the garment is as varied as Joseph's coat. That variegated army which I saw in Salonika a few months ago, consisting of French, English, Serbian, Hindoos, Australians, Czechs, Chinese and Montenegrins, looked like a mass of blood brothers compared with the middle western militia.

Having the enemy before them gave the Salonican troops one common thought. But there, with no enemy in sight, the militia is extremely Joseph pattern.

Badger Polish Company
There's the Polish Company K of Milwaukee, First Wisconsin, for instance. It was organized fifty years ago by Theodore Rosinski. It is known as Kosciuszko's company. Forty per cent of its 120 members were born in Poland. I sat in the tent of Chaplain Henry Plasecki and tried to imagine I was back at the British, French or Austrian front, and talking with an officer of one of those armies, as he said it was an ancient custom of his company not to permit any but Poles to join and that they kept up the custom out of deference to hundreds of previous members now dead.

Will Go to Church
"So many Poles try to join now we are full and turn them over to other companies of the regiment," said the chaplain. "They are scattered through the Wisconsin troops."
We found a Polish church in San Antonio, and the church folks are getting together autos, buggies, wagons and all kinds of rigs to take us up to church next Sunday.

But I couldn't imagine I was anywhere in the American army. Such a thing couldn't happen in any other army in the world, or in any other place than America. Wisconsinans claim the American government has declared the Wisconsin militia to be the model for the country. This Polish company for three years in succession has taken the first Wisconsin prize for field work. Splendid soldiers, thoroughly American, but adding variegation to Uncle Sam's storm coat.

Colored Regiment Adds Variety
Chicago's colored regiment, the Eighth, adds variety and even snap. It is hard enough for Chicago's colored troops to ride in the Jim Crow section of the street cars. San Antonio southern style, but while investigating various textures today I encountered Colonel F. A. Denison, colored, chief of the colored regiment, who said: "I think we have the only dead sure American regiment in the entire lot. The other regiments have got all kinds of folks in them, but we're all the same. We are so American that we obey the San Antonio laws and ride in separate compartments of the street cars, but the other day when the army Y. M. C. A. put up that big frame building right on the edge of camp, and arranged for a white Y. M. C. A. club to which colored men were not admitted, I told the Y. M. C. A. authorities I couldn't vouch for the safety of the building. If my men got at it, I couldn't keep them from tearing it down, and I wouldn't."

May Get Y. M. C. A.
"The Y. M. C. A. people understand and one of them told me privately, 'I respect you for your action.'"

"It looks very much now," and Colonel Denison's eyes twinkled, "as if my attitude will result in my regiment having a very fine Y. M. C. A. building of its own."
These negroes are crackjack Americans, as much a part of the American army as any other regiment. It's the same coat, and Uncle Sam has got some tailoring on hand. The more I see of it, the more I think the material is the best in the world.

WILSON'S APPEAL FOR POLAND RELIEF SENT

WASHINGTON, July 21.—President Wilson has signed a personal letter urging a quick solution of the Polish relief problem and it was dispatched immediately to the rulers of England, France, Russia, Germany and Austria-Hungary.

Jews Take Big Fund
New York, July 21.—Backed by appropriation of $44,000, a committee of five prominent Jews, headed by Rev. Dr. Judah L. Magnes, chairman of the Kelliah, will sail within a few days to investigate conditions in Poland.

The fund which sends them to relieve the suffering in Poland and Galicia is the latest addition to the Jewish relief funds in America, which have already totalled more than $44,000,000.

Following the cabinet meeting, the White House made public this statement:

"The president has sent personal letters to the king of England, the emperor of Germany, the czar of Russia, the emperor of Austria, and the president of France, suggesting they take up entirely afresh the matter of the relief of the overwhelming suffering in Poland, and tendering the kindly offices of this government in negotiations as to the possibility and method of such relief and any plan proposed to be of such character as to be adapted to the accomplishment of no other result than that of the relief of the distressed inhabitants of Poland."

AUTO FAILURE BRINGS HATTON FOR A VISIT

Progressive Republican Candidate for Governor Drops in for Over-night Stay

RECEPTION AT HOLMEN
Impromptu Gathering Meets Senator When He Takes Run to Northern Part of County

Senator William H. Hatton of New London, progressive republican candidate for governor, paid an unexpected and entirely impromptu campaign visit to La Crosse Thursday afternoon. To the idiosyncrasies of an automobile the city owes the honor of entertaining the distinguished visitor over night. The senator, with his campaign party, was touring Crawford and Vernon counties, when his machine broke down at Coon Valley. The party abandoned the car in the Coon Valley garage and boarded the afternoon Southeastern train for La Crosse.

Reception at Holmen
An informal but highly enthusiastic reception was given the candidate at Holmen later in the afternoon, after the senator had got into touch with Senator Otto Bosshard, former Assemblyman John E. McConnell, State Central Committeeman James Thompson, and other progressive republican leaders. Word of the candidate's presence in the county was telephoned to Val Keppel in the northern part of the county, and he prevailed upon the party to take a trip up Holmen-way.

When Mr. Thompson's automobile arrived at Holmen with Senator Hatton, a hastily gathered party of thirty met the machine and were introduced to the senator. Enthusiasm for his candidacy was liberally voiced. A similar reception took place at Midway when the party passed through.

Senator Hatton is expected to be in La Crosse on a regular speaking visit before the September primaries.

Peterson With Hatton
The senator was accompanied by Alvin Peterson of Soldiers Grove, candidate for state treasurer on the progressive republican ticket. In the party which went to Midway and Holmen were included Thomas Morris, James Thompson, Otto Bosshard, John E. McConnell and Frank H. Burgess.

The senator left at 8 o'clock this morning for Madison, accompanied by Senator Bosshard.

RUSS AND GERMAN NAVAL ENGAGEMENT IS LONDON RUMOR

LONDON, July 21.—Reports that Danish sailors arriving from the North sea heard the roar of heavy guns at sea, led to rumors that there may have been an engagement between Russian and German vessels. There have been no official dispatches yet to support the rumors.

FOURTH OF PROGRESSIVE VOTES WILL MEAN WIN FOR WILSON IS CLAIM

NEW YORK, July 21.—While republican leaders thrashed out their campaign plans today in conferences, Democratic National Chairman McCormick issued his first set of figures.

It was a carefully compiled record of progressive votes cast four years ago, and an estimate which it was said was based on conservative information, showing that Wilson would be able to win re-election if he only succeeded in drawing 25 per cent of the progressive strength. The democrats claim he will be able to command a much larger percentage than this—but 25 per cent will be enough to elect, according to McCormick.

Luxury Fund For Local Companies is Object Of Benefit

To raise a fund for use of the La Crosse companies for any comfort of which they may stand in need, the Brotherhood of American Yeomen will give a benefit dance in the near future. The date has not been set.

The brotherhood has donated the use of its commodious hall on King street, and arrangements are well under way for all other arrangements of the dance. A good-sized sum it is expected, will be raised for company funds.

The money, it is planned, will be sent to Companies B and M at San Antonio, in care of Captains Rupp and Fowler, to be expended as the men may desire.

The dance will be the last of the season in Yeomen hall, which will then be closed for renovation and repairs. Additional fire escapes are to be provided.

TEXAS HOTEL MAN KILLS WIFE AND OFFICER IN ARMY

Slayer Alleged to Have Invited Dead Man for Ride and to Have Shot Him and Wife in Car Seat

ALPINE, Texas, July 21.—H. J. Spannell was in jail here today charged with the murder of his wife and Major M. C. Butler of the Sixth United States cavalry.

Mystery continued this afternoon to surround the shooting.

Spannell, accompanied by his wife and little daughter, is said to have called for Butler in an automobile at the latter's hotel. Spannell is alleged to have invited the colonel for a ride. Shortly after Butler entered the car, Spannell, who was driving, drew an automatic revolver and began shooting. He killed Butler first and then turned the weapon on his wife. Several shots took effect in both bodies.

Spannell, after giving himself up to the sheriff, refused to make any statement.

Residents in the outskirts of the town heard a number of shots and rushed into the street to find Spannell sitting in the front seat of an automobile, holding a revolver. In the rear seat were the bodies of his wife and Butler. Both had been instantly killed.

Butler, who has lately been promoted from major, had been in Alpine since May 20. He was born in Edgfield, S. C., was 52 years old and is survived by a widow, one child, and a brother, the latter a physician in Columbia, S. C.

Mrs. Spannell was a daughter of John Holland, a prominent cattleman in this vicinity.

Spannell formerly was instructor in music at Baylor university, Waco, Texas.

AMERICAN OIL BOAT SEIZED BY GERMANS

COPENHAGEN, July 21.—The American schooner Prince Valdinar, which sailed from Philadelphia laden with a cargo of oil for Sweden, was captured by German patrol and taken into Swinemund, according to reports here today.

PRIVATE ARENZ OF LA CROSSE SPIDER-BITTEN

Company M Man Attacked by Tarantula But Is Not Seriously Affected

MANY SPIDERS IN CAMP

Big Rattlesnake Killed by Guard Just Outside of Officers' Quarters of Third Regiment

CAMP WILSON, SAN ANTONIO, Texas, July 21.—(Special to The TRIBUNE.)—Private Louis Arenz of Company M was bitten by a tarantula late on the afternoon of Monday, but is now out of danger, thanks to quick work of Lieutenant R. H. Gray of the hospital corps. Arenz is now completely recovered, although he was indisposed for some hours after the bite. He was the first man in the Third regiment to have suffered the bite of this species of poisonous insect, although two men in other commands of the Wisconsin brigade were bitten previously.

Many Spiders
Mexicans are far from the greatest of the troubles of the Third and other Wisconsin troops. Spiders, ants and rattlesnakes, however, keep things from becoming monotonous. Medical attention is at hand, and the offensive of the insects is no more than discomforting. Two tarantulas have been caught this week in the Third regiment lines, and some of the men are so demoralized at the thought of the spiders that they have left their tents.

No peddlers are allowed in camp following the near-poisoning of three men in the Second regiment by poisoned pop purchased from a Mexican peddler.

A six foot rattlesnake was killed by a Third regiment guard on one of the picket lines just outside of the officers' quarters last Monday.

Otherwise everything in camp is fine. The camp is thoroughly settled into its permanent routine, and drilling has commenced in earnest.

Band Entertained
Monday noon the band and the mounted orderly company of Viroqua, with the sanitary detachment from La Crosse, were entertained at dinner by the Red Cross society of San Antonio.

The work of inoculating the men the third and last time for typhoid has commenced. They are also being vaccinated for smallpox. Three men of the Third have been overcome by the heat but no other serious illness has developed in camp.

Can't Get War-Grooms
"War brides" will not get their huddles back under the "dependent relative" order. General Frederick Funston said Thursday he would not dismiss from the service national guardsmen whose applications and affidavits showed they had married after being called for federal service.

Funston has also made an iron clad rule not to approve the applications for muster out from soldiers who joined their organizations after the president called out the National Guard.

The general approved twenty-five applications today, the same number yesterday and fourteen the day before that.

New Camp at Deming
Deming, N. M., is to have a camp of national guardsmen with at least five regiments. The altitude is high and the temperature lower than at border points, while the railroad connections will enable quick movement of troops to El Paso, Columbus.

FINANCE BOARD HELPLESS-EXTRA SESSION NEEDED

No Other Way to Replenish Mothers' Pension Fund As-sets Chairman of County Committee

That the finance committee of the county board of supervisors will not authorize the payment of mothers' pensions after the present pension fund in the county treasury has been exhausted is the announcement made on Friday by George H. Berger, chairman of the finance committee.

"It would not be legal for the committee to order the payments of money for which no appropriation had been made," Mr. Berger declared. With the decision of the finance committee it became apparent that the only means of securing additional funds with which to continue the pensions until the annual meeting of the board next November, will be to call a special meeting of the board.

The present mothers' pension fund does not contain enough money to pay all persons next month. In order to secure the needed funds a meeting will have to be called within the next two or three weeks.

Up to date no call has been issued.

MEXICO ASSUMES U. S. WILL ACCEPT COMMISSION PLAN

Roberto Pasqueira, Luis Cabrera and Alberto Pani Believed Choice of the De Facto Government

NOTE IS MADE PUBLIC

Aguilar's Note Suggesting Commission Wants Body to Consider Frankly Every Phase of Border Trouble

MEXICO CITY, July 21.—Anticipating acceptance by the United States of its suggestion for discussion of the border question by a commission, it was informally indicated here today that the three commissioners who will represent Mexico will be Roberto Pasqueira, formerly the first chief's representative in Washington; Luis Cabrera, minister of finance, and Alberto Pani, director of railways.

Publication in the newspapers here of the note which was sent to the United States on July 11, aroused favorable comment. Three lines of discussion were suggested—a cooperative plan of hunting down bandits by pursuit of troops of both nations on either side of the border, plans for withdrawal of American forces from Mexico and investigation of the instigators of the raids on American territory. It was expected if the United States gave acceptance of the note the commissioners would meet at Niagara Falls.

The Note
In full the note is as follows:

"The Secretary of State:
"Mr. Secretary: I have the honor to refer to the note of your excellency dated the seventh and transmitted through our confidential agent, Eliseo Arredondo, and wish to state that I have received instructions from the first chief in charge of the executive power of the union suggesting that you conduct to His Excellency, President Wilson, the idea that three commissioners be named to represent each of our governments to meet at some place mutually designated and confer at once regarding the definite withdrawal of American forces in Mexico and to draft a protocol agreement regarding reciprocal crossing of forces; also to investigate the origin of raids which have taken place to date to ascertain the responsibility, and to arrange definitely the pending difficulties, or those that may arise in the future, subject to the approval of both governments.

Declares For Frankness
"The purpose of the Mexican government is that the said conference be carried out in a frank and cordial spirit, with the ardent desire that a satisfactory solution honorable to both countries may be reached. If the United States accepts this suggestion, recommendation is made that commissioners be appointed.

"The Mexican government considers this method the most satisfactory way in which to reach a solution and hopes the United States government will state whether the idea is acceptable so that it may immediately be put into force and this government may forward the names of its representatives.

"Assuring your excellency, etc., (Signed) "C. AGUILAR."

HEIRS ESTIMATE BAKER ESTATE VALUE AT $100,000

The estate of the late Calvin W. Baker, owner of the Hotel Stoddard, is valued at $100,000, according to a petition filed with Registrar in Probate John Costley by the heirs on Friday.

Mr. Baker died intestate. The petitioners ask for the appointment of an administrator. At the time of the hotelman's death, John A. Bayer, cashier of the Bavarian National bank was appointed special administrator. Mr. Bayer has been overseeing the management of the Hotel Stoddard. It is probable that he will be appointed administrator.

U. S. PRESSES ALLIES FOR A REPLY TO NOTE

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The state department has sent both to England and France a request for an answer to this government's last note of protest against allied mail seizures, the department announced today.

The American note was dispatched about two months ago.

FRENCH HOLD POSITIONS GAINED THURSDAY AFTER HEAVY COUNTER ATTACK

HANLY CHOICE OF PROHIBITIONISTS FOR PRESIDENCY

Hoosier's Name Presented by Sumner W. Haynes of Indiana Who Withdrawed from the Race

CHAFLIN NAMES SULZER

Cheering for New Yorker Brief and Feeble; Anti-Catholic Tries to Start Demonstration

BY H. L. RENNICK
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
AUDITORIUM, ST. PAUL, Minn., July 21.—J. Frank Hanly of Indiana was nominated prohibition candidate for president on the first ballot at 2:01 this afternoon.

Sulzer Smothered
Hanly smothered William E. Sulzer of New York, after a bitter fight. The fight was so bitter that when the usual motion was made to make the nomination unanimous, Eugene Chafin, former presidential candidate, leaped to his feet, and objected. "I won't go on record for Hanly," he shouted.

Chairman Patton established a precedent by permitting a startling demonstration of those opposed to making the nomination unanimous. More than 150 stood up.

The official vote, after several delegations had changed their votes, was announced as follows:

Hanly, 440; Sulzer, 181; Hendrickson, 51; Mason, 10; W. B. F. Ferguson, 4; Hayes, 2; Henry Ford, 1. Hanly was the first candidate for president on the prohibition ticket placed in nomination.

Sumner W. Haynes of Indiana, who withdrew from the presidential race himself, made the nominating speech, when Alabama yielded to Indiana.

The convention hoped to nominate and adjourn late in the afternoon. Prior to nominations, the convention adopted the platform committee's report with the addition of the initiative, referendum and recall plank.

Hanly Demonstration
A demonstration for Hanly followed Haynes' speech. It transformed the gathering from a camp meeting into a regular convention for about fifteen minutes. The crowd shouted, marched and sang, "We Want Hanly."

Eugene W. Chafin nominated Sulzer. "We have had in the prohibition party long enough these Sunday school politics," said Chafin. "let us have some statesmanship now."

The Sulzer demonstration lasted only four minutes and was spasmodically feeble. Some one with an orange flag tried to arouse the anti-Catholics, but his friends held him back. Findley C. Hendrickson, Cumberland, Md., a life prohibitionist, was presented as a candidate by George R. Gorsuck of Baltimore. Hendrickson, his sponsor said, "had always been a prohibitionist."

Sulzer until recently was a democrat; Hanly a republican.

Rev. J. G. Mason of Metuchen, N. J., was put in nomination by Rev. R. E. Jay of the New Jersey delegation. Scores of seconding speeches followed. Hanly, Sulzer, Hendrickson and Mason were the only candidates.

With each faction claiming sufficient votes to nominate its man, the convention settled down today to old fashioned politics. The faction supporting J. Frank Hanly of Indiana for president had determined to nominate him, adopt the platform and close the business of the convention last night. William E. Sulzer's personal appearance on the scene, together with a bit of canny politics worked by his supporters, threw a barrier up before the steam roller and the convention adjourned a night session with no business transacted.

GOVERNMENT OPENS FIGHT ON BRITISH TRADE BLACK LIST

WASHINGTON, July 21.—This government's fight against the British black list has started, Acting Secretary of State Polk said this afternoon. Informal representations have been made through the British embassy and Ambassador Page at London, Polk said.

ROME, via London, July 21.—Despite the handicap of inclement weather the Italians are continuing their pressure against the Austrians in the Trentino and have scored advances in some sectors.

TEUTONS THROWN BACK WITH HEAVY LOSSES ON SOMME

French Improve the Positions Gained Yesterday on Ten Mile Front; Bayonets Rout the Chaulnes Attack

ALLIES USE NUT CRACKER

Method of Germans Inverted; Push Fulcrum Forward and Then Advance Wings from Wedge

PARIS, July 21.—Heavy German counter attacks on the positions which the French won yesterday in a renewal of the Somme assault were repulsed today. The victorious French troops threw the Teutons back in disorder, inflicting heavy losses, and have consolidated and strengthened their positions materially.

The official statement today reported French successes everywhere along the line. It indicated the heaviest fighting in the sector where yesterday's offensive gained ground on a ten mile front. The German counter attack came last night when the French were making themselves in their newly wrested gains.

Bayonets Rout Germans
In the Chaulnes region, strong German patrol attempting to reach the French lines was surprised and routed at the bayonet point between Soissons and Rheims French patrols, which penetrated into German held territory, were successful in a grenade attack on a German trench, emptying it of the enemy.

Heavy artillery actions were reported in the Chattancourt and Fleury regions.

In the Vosges the Germans are violently bombarding the French positions. North of Wissembach the French lines vigorously repulsed a strong German attack.

Haig Goes Forward
LONDON, July 21.—General Haig's forces continued their victorious push against the German lines today, driving out of the Fourcraux wood, north of Bazentin and Longueval, a German detachment which had gained an entry there after a counter attack.

The British commander-in-chief's report today indicated that after yesterday's advance by the British forces the Germans made their customary night counter-attack. They gained a foothold on the northern part of the Fourcraux wood, but were repulsed in attempts similarly to regain some stretches in the southern portion of the forest. Attacked by the British today the German defenders in the northern section were forced to abandon their position.

The Fourcraux wood lies just south of the main highway between Albert and Bapaume, the latter town being the immediate objective of the British attacking forces. The fact that it was the site of determined attacks and counter attacks, was taken here to indicate that the British forces are endeavoring to straighten out the crook in the battle line between Beaumont and Longueval including the towns of Thiepval, Mar tinpuich and Pozieres.

The British positions at Longueval were strengthened today and in—

BURGLARS WORK DESPERATELY TO GET SMALL CHANGE

Smash Two Locks and Batter Ford Garage Cash Register to Bits for Only $1.15

Thieves who sweated their way through as hard-shelled an egg as any burglars ever cracked found a small yolk for their pains Friday night, when they got just $1.15 out of a cash register at the Ford garage. To get at the handful of change they smashed two locks and spent a deal of energy battering the big register open.

The cash register was a ruin of dented and twisted steel in the morning. The loss occasioned by the destruction of the money box is at least a hundred times that resulting from the theft of its contents.

The thieves gained entrance by breaking the lock on the Main street door of the garage office. They smashed the lock on the door from the office into the garage, and carried the register from the office, sledging it open at their leisure. The police have no clue.

COUNTY FATHERS BEAT CITY UNTIL LUNCH GONG RINGS

Courthouse Crew Baseball Team Victors with Four-frame Score of 13 to 5

County officials are 1916 champions over the city officials. The court house guardians brought home the bacon while the kings of the city hall were in gloom.

With the score standing thirteen to five at the end of the fourth inning, someone reminded the ball players that lunch was being served. There was a wild scramble, and the base ball game between city and county dads, the crowning event of the joint picnic held at Dresden park on Thursday, was over.

George Ritter, of the city park commission, commanded the catcher's box for the city. Ed Miller pitched. Fred Schultz and W. B. Wertheim, Minneapolis, umpired, and as Schultz predicted, "the county didn't get anything over." "Only eight scores," the mayor reminded him after the game.

Supervisor S. B. Markle, Under-sheriff John A. Weber, District Attorney Otto M. Schlach, Chairman R. S. Davis, and County Treasurer Ole Lund, were the stars for the aggregation from the county's executive building.

One big, howling, whooping success was the way the first boatload of returning picnickers expressed their opinion of the city and county picnic late Thursday afternoon.

There was something doing every minute.

The dinner was a separate success all by itself. This was learned in an interview with Ollie Ash, who sneaked his dish down the Dresden park "bread line" four times. He said he was ashamed to try it again, as the cook sized him up closely the last time, and so he cajoled County Clerk Jolivet, who was also making frequent visits to the commissary department, to sneak it through for him.

Jolivet did. In fact there wasn't much that "Bert" didn't see to. He did not leave the Seanger dock until the last of nine boats had gone. Then he commandeered Register of Deeds' A. E. Thompson's launch and made the journey.

The last boat to return to La Crosse Thursday evening left, at about 9 o'clock.

Everyone was singing: "We'll be back when the roses bloom again."

HIGHWAYS GOOD

GENERAL PERSHING'S HEAD-QUARTERS IN MEXICO, BY FIELD WIRELESS TO COLUMBUS, N. FIVE DIE FROM HEAT

CHICAGO, July 21.—After going to a season's record, Chicago's temperature was sent tumbling Thursday by a thunderstorm. Five died Wednesday when the government thermometer reached 90.

GOPHER TROOPS IN CAMP SHORT OF ICE MONEY

CAMP LLANO GRANDE, Texas, July 21.—The First Minnesota infantry must have more money from home if the men are to be properly safeguarded against disease and housed under proper conditions when sick. Lacking enough ice to cool the water, which comes from the Rio Grande, and without sufficient funds to invest in lemons to make the water more drinkable, the company commanders have been compelled to take up individual collections from the men. In many cases this has been a hardship.

The government has not been able to supply enough ice. Each regiment is getting about 300 pounds a day and this does not go far. The government supplies no lemons. The regimental hospital company has not enough cots for the sick. The regimental hospital tent is not screened. These things could be cared for with more funds.

First is Worst Off

The officers and men of the First are not complaining, but they know that the men of the other two Minnesota regiments are better off than they. Colonel W. T. Mollison of the Second infantry said today that his regiment, aside from any aid from the state fund, had from $200 to $2,000 a company. Owatonna raised $2,000 for its company alone.

Artillery in Missouri

ABOARD FIRST ARTILLERY SPECIAL, ENROUTE TO THE BORDER, July 21.—The Second battalion, First Minnesota field artillery, reached St. Joseph, Mo., late Thursday. The two trains have kept about thirty minutes apart. The men are in the best of spirits, have splendid accommodations, sufficient good food, tourist sleepers for everyone, frequent medical inspection and enough exercise. The two trains are the best equipped troop trains to go to the border. The men slept better than ever before in the last four weeks.

CLIFF SCALING IN "PASQUALE" IS EXCITING—BIJOU

A very real thrill is the cliff scaling performed by the Italian mount-batter in "Pasquale" the Morosco production released on the Paramount program. Up an almost perpendicular wall of rock these active men press on to victory in the face of a hot fire.

This photoplay is based upon the life and experiences of Pasquale, the Italian grocer, who is called back to Italy to the battle front.

George Beban, has, in a great characterization of this role, made a picture so full of interesting human traits and experiences that the breath of reality animates the entire picture-play and compels an enrapt attention.

Strong support is given by Myrtle Stedman, Helen Jerome Eddy, Jack Nelson, Page Peters, and Nigel de Brulleur. Showing again tonight and Saturday at the Bijou.

Don't try to freeze a man's love out; just tell him that you can't live without him and it will gradually evaporate.

HOW HOPPER HOPS "TO CASEY AT THE BAT"—MAJESTIC

DeWolf Hopper, Triangle's popular star, claims a new record Wednesday night, June 21. Mr. Hopper out in Los Angeles, hurried over to the telephone booth in the Fine Arts studio, took the receiver off the hook and just about as nonchalantly as the rest of us call up to say we'll be home late to dinner, started to recite, "Casey at the Bat."

Two or three thousand miles away or at any rate, more miles than ever the redoubtable Casey ever hit the ball, four hundred representatives of as many newspapers who had assembled for the annual convention of the International Circulation Managers' association, picked up receivers and listened to the historic poem as it came over the wire.

All of which Mr. Hopper claims, gives him the record for long distance "piece speaking" if it doesn't do anything else.

Beside Mr. Hopper's contribution to the entertainment program, after dinner speeches were delivered over the long distance telephone wire by the Hon. Charles E. Hughes speaking from Washington; Governor Hiram Johnson of California, who talked from San Francisco, and Ralph Pulitzer and William Hearst, who spoke from New York.

De Wolf Hopper will appear in the latest Triangle movie play, "Casey at the Bat" next Sunday and Monday at the Majestic.

WILLARD TO GET IN EARLY WITH CIRCUS

If you want to see Jess Willard, the world's champion heavyweight, arrive in town July 25, you'll have to get up bright and early, for he is coming with the Sells-Floto circus, and they are scheduled to arrive before sun-up.

However, Willard is coming and he is going to show the fans just how he accomplished the feat of beating down the big negro and acquiring the world's championship title. He will also illustrate how he defended the title at Madison Square Garden on March 25.

Willard and his party are regarded as stars from every point of view with the Sells-Floto circus. The champion has his own private car, and instead of hustling to a hotel in the various cities visited, Jess remains in the car—that is, he makes his home in the Pullman. In the party with the champion are his manager, Tom Jones, sparring partners and his valet.

Sunset tomorrow, 7:40 p. m.

Yesterday's Temperatures
High, 85; low, 62; precipitation, 0.

Forecasts
For Wisconsin: Generally fair tonight and Saturday. Somewhat cooler
Saturday in north portion.

For Minnesota: Generally fair tonight and Saturday. Somewhat cooler Saturday.

For Iowa: Generally fair tonight and Saturday. Warmer tonight in northeast and central portions.
Slightly cooler Saturday in northwest portion.

Weather Conditions
An area of low pressure is central off the New England coast and cloudy weather prevails throughout the Atlantic states, with rain at several stations. Cloudy weather also prevails in the gulf states and generally clear weather in all other sections. The precipitation during the past 24 hours has been confined mostly to the eastern half of the country. The temperature changes have been small, except in the New England states where it is cooler.

Moderate depressions are central in Manitoba and in the southwest and an area of high pressure is located over the north Pacific states.

These pressure conditions indicate generally fair weather in this section for tonight and Saturday without much change in temperature.

The Searchlight

A SHADOWLESS LIGHT
One of the latest improvements in hospital equipment is the invention of a shadowless light for the operating table. This has been secured by a fixture containing eight electric lights placed so that their rays meet at an angle of 45 degrees. This makes better vision possible in the examination of wounds and also eliminates the possibility of a delicate operation being hindered by the shadows of the surgeon's hands as is frequently the case with lights ordinarily placed. It is claimed that the shadow-less light might lessen the number of accidents in many industrial establishments.

AT LAST TRUTH PREVAILS

The complete and triumphant vindication of Hon. Tom Morris, which Judge Clementson departed from the usual form of judicial decisions to make emphatic, terminates a case that has been followed with considerable interest in La Crosse, not less intense because it appeared that what greed and envy had conceived, politics had fed and fostered, until there was built up a fabric of misrepresentation and misunderstanding that led square men to believe themselves wronged and able lawyers to bring action. In the trial, for the first time, the light of truth was turned on and the structure of falsehood and misinterpretation collapsed as the cobweb is swept away by the housewife's broom.

Mr. Morris accepted employment from one "Newman" to assist in the sale of certain lands. His compensation was fixed at $2,000. The land holdings were incorporated, and the stock placed on the market. It was not found possible to sell all the stock, and to wind up the deal Mr. Newman took over the balance, becoming a stockholder to that extent. Being short of money, he asked Mr. Morris to accept $2,000 of his stock in lieu of a cash payment, which Mr. Morris did.

It was the contention of his detractors that Mr. Morris had permitted himself to appear as a representative of the stockholders rather than of Mr. Newman, and that while acting in a fiduciary capacity for them had accepted his stock as compensation for inducing them to buy under misunderstanding of the facts.

The evidence showed, without a syllable of contradiction, that to each prospective purchaser of stock approached by him, Mr. Morris had stated that Mr. Newman owned the land, that he (Mr. Morris) was employed by Mr. Newman, and that he (Mr. Morris) did not intend to become a stockholder, and that subsequently he had become a stockholder to collect a debt honorably earned and with the full knowledge of all concerned.

When the plaintiffs, who sought to have Mr. Morris' stock cancelled, had finished presenting their evidence, Mr. Morris took the stand, but hardly had he done so when the court interrupted Attorney Winter with the declaration that it would be unnecessary for Mr. Morris to present evidence in his own behalf. Proceeding, then, upon the record of evidence made by Mr. Morris' opponents, Judge Clementson delivered an extraordinary opinion in which, after holding in the usual form of such decisions that the whole transaction involving Messrs. Lyons and Morris was in every way legitimate, he concluded a lucid analysis of the evidence by saying:

I am thoroughly convinced that throughout his entire transaction Mr. Morris has acted uprightly and honestly, not only as an individual, but as a trustee.

Never during the protracted period of innuendo that originated three years ago and found ready sponsors in a political campaign, have those who have known Mr. Morris intimately doubted his integrity or feared for the outcome, but that skepticism may have entered the minds of men who lacked the advantage of his close personal acquaintance is possible. To that extent to which the latter is true, the sweeping exoneration by Judge Clementson is of value to Mr. Morris. At any rate, we congratulate our distinguished fellow citizen upon the grist which the mills of the gods have so slowly but unerringly ground.

A SPECIES OF BUSHWHACKING

From his accustomed ambush some busy anonymuncle to-day mailed to the TRIBUNE, pinned to an editorial clipping from this paper in which it was said that the Orpet verdict was not vindication, the following paragraph:

Yes, old man Brayton, we agree with you, but why not stay at home with this stuff? "Neither is a hidden murderer vindicated." If Orpet is a "bastard cur", what is young ? Didn't he sneak away in the night, leave her alone on the street, dead? He killed her. Why not punish him as well as some poor devil?

From the above, in the now blank space, we have deleted the name of a well-known young man, to publish which in this connection, without proof, would be a dangerous libel.

Every word this unsigned correspondent says about the man who, after killing Mrs. Dahl, ran away in the night, is true. That man is a dastard. But he is hardly more contemptible than the man who can prove the identity of the guilty party, but remains silent; hardly more pusillanimous than he who can not prove that identity, but nevertheless directly charges another with the crime under cover of an anonymous letter.

The TRIBUNE staff has devoted every energy to the task of discovering and exposing the perpetrator of this cowardly killing. Rumors it has found a plenty, but run to ground, they have not aggregated either proof or a combination of circumstances that would warrant the most reckless publisher in assuming to place the responsibility. The almost inexplicable failure of the machinery of justice is not reassuring, but the fundamental facts of the case are so susceptible of proof that even delay would seem insufficient to forestall the ultimate apprehension of the malefactors.

However, we shall hold the writer of the above communication in higher esteem than the slayer of Mrs. Dahl, when he brings forward proof to substantiate the accusation he has so unconditionally made, or when he acknowledges that he accused a fellow citizen upon rumor which he had accepted without verification, or when he assumes the responsibility he would place upon the TRIBUNE and displays the manhood required to attach his own name to the indictment which he so freely makes from the safe cover of a cowardly incognito.

A True Progressive
Bill Saunders was the liveliest wire in town and also, to change the metaphor, a diamond in the rough.

When one of his townsmen took him to New York on an important business trip and dined with him in a fashionable restaurant Bill's unconventional use of his knife attracted rather too much attention. "I say, Bill," drawled his host as the situation became embarrassing, "I notice that the folks down here are eating with forks."

Bill made an exhaustive survey of the brilliant dining room. "So there are!" he ejaculated. "By the great horn spoon, Jim, we'll take that back to S—!" —A. L.

Logic
James T. Fields, one of the notable publishers and also a man of letters, relates that when he went to Stratford he met a native of that country. He told the native that he had come to see the home of Shakespeare.

"That's all right," said the man of Warwickshire, "but, for my part, I don't believe Shakespeare would be heard of now if he hadn't wrote them plays."

Paying the Minister
A young couple went to a minister's house to get married. After the ceremony the bridegroom drew the clergyman aside and said in a whisper:

"I'm sorry I have no money to pay your fee, but if you'll take me down into the cellar I'll show you how to fix your gas meter so that it won't register." —Baltimore Sun.

Out of the Mouths of Kids
A schoolboy writing a description of hens said:

"Hens is curious animals; they don't have no nose, nor no teeth, nor no ears. They swallows their wittles whole, and chew it up with their crops in their chests. The outside of hens is generally put into pillows or made into feather dusters."

A Good Remedy
Witherspoon thought it was a good chance to get some medical aid without paying for it. "How do you do this morning, colonel?" asked Dr. Sooner. "Poorly, doctor, poorly. For some time past I have been suffering from weakness. As you see, I can hardly walk. What shall I take, doctor?" "Take a taxi," replied the doctor, gruffly, as he strode off.

Much More Desirable
"I don't believe that mercenary girl can imagine anything better than being a rich old man's wife."

"There's one thing she's like better than that."

"What's that?"

"His widow."

DAILY TRAVELETTE
(By Miksah)

COMPTON
A handful of white houses, a church or two, a general store and a grain elevator nestling sleepily in fertile fields might be almost any place in Illinois, but in this instance they are Compton, a city in no way remarkable until you consider its inhabitants, whereupon it becomes as remarkable as any other collection of the members of this surprising human race.

Of course it has a city park, graced one week a year by a chautauqua and it has an enterprising store called the Compton Mercantile, a band concert once a week, and a row of whittling philosophers draped on the railings of the bank. One could go on indefinitely naming things similarly deserving of attention, but the one item most worthy of mention is Andy Compton.

Andy Compton is in fact considerably more than an item. He is a personage, unique and indomitable. In the first place he is the founder of the village, and in the second place he possesses much mysterious wealth, or so says local report. Handfuls of diamonds are popularly attributed to him, and bags and bags of gold. He lives alone in one basement room of his large frame house, where he pursues his ends in an uncommunicative way. He gratifies his bloodied colts and taming those loose in pasture, where they live joyous untrammelled lives until they die of old age. His passion for peppermints and lemons he satisfies by buying small quantities of these edibles and consuming them in the hospitable Compton Mercantile, where one may see him daily in a state of mild and beatific dissipation.

Compton village has a personality of its own, though the casual visitor might not suspect as much at first glance. It strikes you on arrival as a mild backwater of existence, rather hot, rather featureless, rather dull. But after a week or two you realize that it is in just such quiet spots as Compton that the roots of life strike deepest, that the individual is now swallowed up in the mass, but stands out clear and isolated, that the drama of daily existence is played out on its merits, unobscured by over-much surface glitter and pretension.

PARSONAGE

"I may as well tell you, I suppose—you'll have to know it sooner or later. She—went out into Avery's orchard and stole some apples this afternoon. I was back in the alley seeing if Mrs. Moon could do the washing, and I saw her from the other side. She went from tree to tree, and when she got through the fence she ran. There's no mistake about it—she confessed." The twins looked up in agony, but Prudence's face reassured them. Constance had told no tales. "I have told her she must spend all of her time up-stairs alone for a week, taking her meals there, too. She will go to school, of course, but that is all. I want her to see the awfulness of it. I told her I didn't think we wanted to eat with a thief—just yet! I said we must get used to the idea of it first. She is heart-broken, but—I must make her see it!"

That was the end of supper. No one attempted to eat another bite. After the older girls had gone into the sitting room, Carol and Lark went about their work with stricken faces.

"She's a little brick not to tell," whispered Lark.

"I'm going to give her that pearl pin of mine she always liked," said Carol in a hushed voice.

"I'll give her my blue ribbon, too—she loves blue so. And tomorrow I'll take that quarter I've saved and buy her a whole quarter's worth of candy."

But that night when the twins went up to bed, they were doomed to disappointment. They had no chance of making it up with Constance. For Prudence had moved her small bed out of the twins' room, and had placed it in the front room occupied by herself and Fairy. They asked if they might speak to Constance, but Prudence went in with them to say good night to her. The twins broke down and cried as they saw the pitiful little figure with the wan and tear-stained face. They threw their arms around her passionately and kissed her many times. But they went to bed without saying anything.

Hours later, Lark whispered, "Carol! are you asleep?"

"No. I can't go to sleep some how."

"Neither can I. Do you think we'd better tell Prudence all about it?"

Carol squirmed in the bed. "I suppose we had," she said reluctantly.

"But—it'll be lots worse for us than for Connie," Lark added. "We're so much older, and we made her do it."

"Yes, and we ate all the apples," mourned Carol.

"Maybe we'd better just let it go," suggested Lark.

"And we'll make it up to Connie afterwards," said Carol.

"Now, you be careful and not give it away, Carol."

"You see that you don't."

But it a sorry night for the twins. The next morning they set off to school, with no chance for anything but a brief good morning with Connie—given in the presence of Prudence. Half-way down the parsonage walk, Carol said:

"Oh, wait a minute, Lark. I left my note-book on the table." And Lark walked slowly while Carol went rushing back. She found Prudence in the kitchen, and whispered:

"Here's a note, Prudence. Don't read it until after I've gone to school; and at ten o'clock you may read. Will you promise?"

Prudence laughed a little, but she promised, and laid the note carefully away to wait the appointed hour for its perusal. As the clock struck ten she went to the mantle, and took it down. This is what Carol had written:

"Oh, Prudence, do please forgive me, and don't punish Connie any more. You can punish me any way you like, and I'll be glad of it. It was all my fault. I made her go and get the apples for me, and I ate them. Connie didn't eat one of them. She said stolen apples would not taste very good. It was all my fault, and I'm so sorry. I was such a coward I didn't dare tell you last night. Will you forgive me? But you must punish me as hard as ever you can. But please, Prudence, won't you punish me some way without letting Lark know about it? Please, please, Prudence, don't let Lark know. You can tell Papa and Fairy so they will despise me, but keep it from my twin. If you love me, Prudence, don't let Lark know."

As Prudence read this her face grew very stern. Carol's fault! And she was ashamed to have her much-loved twin know of her disgrace. At that moment, Prudence heard some one running through the hall, and thrust the note hastily into her dress. It was Lark, and she flung herself wildly upon Prudence, sobbing bitterly.

"What is the matter, Lark?" she cried, really frightened. "Are you sick?"

"Heartsick, that's all," wailed Lark. "I told the teacher I was sick so I could come home, but I'm not. Oh, Prudence, I know you'll despise and abominate me all the rest of your life, and everybody will, and I deserve it. For I stole those apples myself. That is, I made Connie go and get them for me. She didn't want to. She begged not to. But I made her. She didn't eat one of them—I did. And she felt very badly about it. Oh, Prudence, you can do anything in the world to Mabel Taliaferro.

Thirty aged men and women are shown in the forthcoming Metro-Rolfe production, "God's Half Acre," starring Mabel Taliaferro, under the direction of Edwin Carver. They take the parts of the inmates of Rainbow's End, a home for the aged portrayed in the play. Put together, the ages of those who are ranged around a dining table in the picture would aggregate almost 3,000 years.

Miss Taliaferro was one of the first stars of the legitimate stage to appear in moving pictures. Her success on the screen has long since been assured. She has appeared recently in "Her Great Price" and "The Snow Bird."

Too Much Nature
Leah Baird thought she loved nature. She never had much opportunity to test her love for it, most of her life having been spent in the city. Her first opportunity in a long time came when some country movies were being made by the Vitagraph company.

Between scenes she went on a ramble alone through flowery fields, through one of them to be exact.

There her ramble was cut short. She announced its termination with a shrill scream, that brought help on the run.

Miss Baird had come upon a genuine garter snake of the most threatening aspect, and fully seven inches in length.

She insisted on being escorted back to the studio.

"I don't think I care for nature, after all," she said. "There's too many snakes in it."

Margaret Anglin Lured by Films
Miss Margaret Anglin, one of the greatest actresses of the English speaking stage, has succumbed to the lure of the photo play screen. Lest this be taken as intimating that Miss Anglin has deserted the footlights, it should be announced that such is not the case. She is under contract with a new company to appear in sixteen feature films within the next two years. The scenarios are to be written by well-known authors. The first picture, as yet unnamed, is in process of production, the release date being set for September. The studio is in Detroit.

"It is the limitless democracy and the tremendous possibilities for artistic achievement that have made the screen irresistible to me," Miss Anglin said. "Now I will be able to meet all those people I have passed by during the last ten years—I mean the thousands in the towns and villages I have steamed through en route to the big cities."

A shame! Gertrude McCoy couldn't use her $500 cat in a picture soon to be released by the Gaumont company because the author insisted the story wouldn't "get over" unless she lavished her affection on a dog.

A number of New York hospitals have found that motion pictures answer the question of how to entertain the insane, and have installed machines.

"May I speak to Constance Starr, Mr. Ines?" she asked. "It is very important. This is Prudence, her sister." And when Connie came to the telephone, she cried, "Oh, you blessed little child, why didn't you tell me? Will you forgive me, Connie? I ought to have made you tell me all about it, but I was so sorry. I couldn't bear to talk much about it. The twins have told me. You're a dear, sweet, good little darling, that's what you are."

"Oh, Prudence!" That was all Connie said, but something in her voice made Prudence hang up the receiver quickly, and cry bitterly!

That noon Prudence pronounced judgment on the sinners, but her eyes twinkled for Carol and Lark had scolded each other roundly for giving things away!

HUNDREDS OF NEW SCHOOLS IN STATE

MADISON, Wis., July 21.—Over 200 school houses will be erected in Wisconsin during the coming year. The reports are just coming into the state superintendent's office and they indicate an unprecedented number of new buildings during the coming year. In a number of counties school buildings have been condemned by the department. In Rock county fourteen school buildings alone were condemned. During the past few days Platteville has voted to build a $100,000 school building and Pewaukee this week voted $42,000 for a new building. The greatest building, however, will be one room school buildings, but a larger number will probably be consolidated schools. Much of the money for the erection of these rural schools is loaned by the state to the district. The reports from the land office show that this year has produced the largest call for school loans of any year in the history of the state. The amount of loans for this year will be between $600,000 and $700,000. In anticipation of building next year applications have been filed for over $500,000 worth of loans already. Because of this unusual interest in the building of school houses the industrial commission and the state superintendent's office have issued a circular giving recommendations for the requirements in the erection of new school buildings. The circular gives complete details of building in order to secure the proper amount of light and ventilation for the convenience and health of the children. It gives directions for the placing of the foul air outlets, basement exits, blackboards, the seats and the height of windows.

"The contract for the heating and ventilating systems should not be let until the design has been worked out," says the bulletin. "It is often desirable to require a test of the system in cold weather, meantime withholding 25 per cent of the contract price or requiring an equivalent bond."

GOOD CROPS WILL KEEP ROAD BUSY FOR LONG TIME, SAYS EARLING

President A. J. Earling of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway in talking this morning about the probable course of business in the future said that traffic will keep the transportation facilities fully employed for an indefinite period.

"If the crops turn out as well as expected there is every reason to believe that this will be a record breaking year for small grains," he said. "Reports of rust on wheat in the grain belt are not alarming. In fact there has been only slight damage from that cause. The rust is not spreading and it is not believed that it will."

MISS SAUER LEADS IN RING CONTEST

Miss Barbara Sauer today maintains big lead in the contest for a diamond ring and a gold watch being conducted by the La Crosse Amusement company in conjunction with the street carnival to be held next week. Her score is 730. Other standings are: Minnie Will, 250; Elsie Marquardt, 99; Mabel McKibben, 96; Anna Klinia, 94; Emma Franc, 93; Ethel Schrader, 80; Mabel Gerky, 65; Martha Reihl, 65.

MEXICAN LABORERS STEAL RIFLES AND JOIN VILLISTAS

BY WEBB C. MILLER
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
COLUMBUS, N. M., July 21.—After stealing rifles and ammunition from sleeping truck drivers, several Mexican laborers employed on road repairs along the American expedi-tion's communication lines in Mexico deserted in the night and headed south to join the Villistas. It was learned here today.

Cavalrymen set out in pursuit and captured one after nearly twenty-four hours' chase. Since reports of Villa's renewed activities have been circulated there has been an under-current of restlessness among the Mexican laborers with the expedition.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs kidneys, then the Back hurts.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasional, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutral-izes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

NO ENGLISH HEARD IN DEUTSCHES HAUS

MADISON, Wis., July 21.—No language except German is allowed in "Das Deutsches Haus," a boarding and rooming house where some fifty students and instructors at the summer session of the University of Wisconsin are taking their meals this summer. Only German songs are sung, only German magazines and books are on the shelves, and many German dishes are served.

"Das Deutsches Haus," with its Germanic atmosphere, is maintained for students who expect to teach German and need practice in speaking it—a chance to live in a German family where English is not spoken at all. Correctness of diction is insured by the presence of a German instructor at each of the dining tables.

Nineteen states are represented among the fifty students, both men and women, at the tables. They came from Rhode Island and California and many places between.

Twenty-five others applied for places at the tables but there was no room for them. Seventeen young women have rooms in the house this summer.

"Das Deutsches Haus" was started by the Germanistische Gesellschaft, German club of the university, during the summer session of 1914 in the lodge of the Delta Gamma so-society. In the fall money was donated by Milwaukee people for the furnishing of a permanent house, and the German boarding and rooming house is run during the winter term as well as summer session. Its manager and chaperon is Miss Anna Essinger of the German department, and it is self-supporting.

TRAIN YOUR HAIR AS AN ACTRESS DOES

No class of people devotes as much time to beauty as do actresses, and naturally no class must be more careful to retain and develop their charms. Inquiry among them develops the information that in hair care they find it dangerous to shampoo with any makeshift hair cleanser. Instead they have studied to find the finest preparation made for shampooing and bringing out the beauty of the hair. The majority of them say that to enjoy the best hair wash and scalp stimulator that is known, get a package of canthox from your druggist; dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water and your shampoo is ready. It costs less than three cents for this amount.
After its use the hair dries rapidly, with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its lustre and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.

FRECKLES

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the prescription othine —double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any druggist and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength othine as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

Long Skirts Probably Gone for Good

Just 20 years ago this year, it was the style to wear long trailing skirts that did a portion of the work now paid for by the street cleaning department, and in 1896 the Rainy Day club was organized to start a propaganda for the adoption of more sensible dress by women, and the "rainy daisy" skirt saw the light. Intended at first solely for stormy weather, the short skirt made such rapid strides for popularity that trailing garments for the street are now as extinct as the dodo, and in all probability will never return even after the passing of the present fashion of very short skirts for any and all occasions.

ODD CASE COMES TO COMMISSION

MADISON, Wis., July 21.—Despite the fact that Wisconsin has had a workmen's compensation act for five years, new cases arise every little while. Recently one of the most notable freak cases of compensation history arose to bother the industrial commission, which administers the compensation law. For obvious reasons real names are omitted. But here is the story: John Jones, shipping clerk failed to show up for work and his employers filled his place. Three months later Jones claimed compensation, saying he had been injured at his work. His body was covered with sores. Medical opinion diagnosed the sores as cancerous growths. He was given but a short time to live. Jones' employers ascertained that Jones was single and that no one was dependent upon his earnings but himself. This being the fact, the employers knew that they would be liable, if liability were proved, for medical and burial expenses only.

Jones' employers had a surprise in store for them. Jones died as per the doctor's prediction. After his death his employers were served with notice of claim for compensation on behalf of Jones' infant child. It was shown subsequently that a month before Jones died he was married to the young woman who, a month after the marriage, gave birth to their child.

The birth was legalized by the tardy marriage of the father and mother.

If the attorneys for Jones' infant child are able to prove that Jones came to his death as the result of an industrial accident, that the child is in reality his child, etc., etc., the employers probably will be required to pay out $3,000 as an award for fatal injury. The employers in this case are insured under the compensation act and therefore will not stand the loss directly.

Lawyers throughout the country who are following closely the thousands of precedents now being fixed in compensation law, will keep close watch of the industrial commission's findings in this case.

Optimistic Thought.
What is acquired without labor is seldom worth acquiring at all.

SOCIETY

TEA
Miss Dora Hirschheimer gave a very informal but delightful tea Friday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hirschheimer. Forty invitations were issued. Miss Anna Green served the ice, assisted by the Misses Caroline and Gretchen Schweizer. The tea is in honor of Miss Ruth Wetzel of Wayne, who is the guest of Miss Eleanor Schweizer.

OUTING PARTIES
Miss Alletta Rose is entertaining a party of friends at Rose cottage at Trempealeau bay. In the party are Mrs. Anna Hickisch Howland, the Misses Bertha Hickisch, Anna Pamperin, Miriam Harrison and Lillian Kroner.

HOUSE PARTY
A party of well known La Crosse young women are occupying the Miller cottage at Sunset Point. They are the Misses Gertrude Ives, Phyllis Whendon, Hazel Viets, Katherine Erickson, Pauline Smith and Hazel Ruplin.

A party of ladies consisting of Mrs. Ives, Mrs. Wheldon, Mrs. H. B.
Smith and Mrs. Ruplin went up yesterday and spent the day, returning by launch in the evening.

EPWORTH AUTO PARTY
Members of the Epworth league of the Caledonia Street Methodist church were taken by auto last night to Staats' cottage on French Island, when a business and social meeting was held. The cottage was prettily decorated with pennants and Japanese lanterns for the occasion. Boating, swimming, music and games constituted entertainment for the evening. Ice cream and cake were served for refreshments. Between forty-five and fifty members were present.

SOCIAL BRIEFS
Mrs. Robert Whelpley, who has been teaching at a summer school of music in Chicago, returned home Monday morning. Mr. Whelpley went to Chicago and returned with her.
Miss Ruth Wetzel of Wayne, Pa., is the guest of Miss Eleanor Schweizer.

Miss Alice Borreson, who has a position as teacher in French at Seattle, is a guest at the home of Thomas Stavrum.

Mrs. Frederick Holbrook of Evanston, Ill., is visiting old friends in the city.

Mrs. Edwin Castle of Glencoe, Ill., and daughter Mariette will arrive Saturday to visit Mrs. G. Van Steenwyk.

Mrs. H. M. Curtis entertained at two informal teas this week at the Country club.

Miss Stollwitz is now earning $50 a week. She began as a typist at a small salary, but won a typewriting contest by writing accurately over 140 words a minute. Her engagement by a large typewriting firm for demonstration purposes followed, at her present salary.

Speedy Courtship Ends in Marriage

NEW YORK, July 21.—A courtship that is probably closer to the speed record was that which culminated in the marriage today of Miss Gussie Eugenie Lazarnick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lazarnick, and Joseph Heims, son of the late Mr.

MISSION WANTS BIG ELECTRIC SHINGLE TO BEAT "DEVIL'S" SIGNS

D. C. Dewey, superintendent of the La Crosse Rescue Mission, wants someone to contribute a glaring electric sign for the front of his institution on lower Pearl street.

This is why he wants it: "On every side of the mission," says Dewey, "are big, red lettered electric signs. They are the devil's signs. The mission has a diminutive sign, with a few weak electric bulbs whose light is lost in the big glare from the others on both sides. "That little sign is handicapping our work. It can't be seen for others. The devil is going to better us if we don't get a prominent sign pretty soon."

FAVORITE FISHING

GROUND SWAP MAY OPEN TARGET LAKE

With County Clerk Bert A. Jollivette and Earl Simpson, district attorney of Winona county co-operating, and with the backing of the La Crosse County Hunting and Fishing association, and similar associations of the up-river county, La Crosse fishermen may be in a position to fish in Blue Lake, Target Lake, and surrounding waters in Minnesota without a Minnesota license before the present angling season is past.

The scheme of Jollivette and the Winona attorney is to "swap" favorite fishing grounds. If La Crosse fishermen are given the privilege of fishing in Minnesota waters opposite this city, Jollivette is going to endeavor to secure for Winona fishermen the privilege of fishing in Wisconsin waters opposite their city.

They intend immediately to take the matter up with the fish and game departments of the Wisconsin and Minnesota governments.

Recently many La Crosse men have been arrested, taken to Caledonia, Minn., the county seat of Houston county, and fined the limit for violation of the present Minnesota law. Trempealeau county, it is understood, has been treating Winona county fishermen to the same medicine in return.

Attorney Simpson is in favor of allowing Wisconsin fishermen the privilege of using all waters between the Mississippi river and the right-of-way of the Dubuque division of the Milwaukee railroad.

Use Nut Cracker Another Way LONDON, July 21.—The German crown prince invented the nut-cracker style of attack, where encircling arms strove to squeeze out resistance about a given section, but it has remained for the Franco-British offensive to put this style of offensive to another use. Briefly, the scheme is to advance a wedge—the fulcrum of the nut cracker and then push outward two arms from this wedge. The Germans squeezed an opened nut cracker together; the allies are opening a closed nut cracker. Such a scheme is in operation today in the Peronne sector, the British swinging forward their arm of the nut cracker with terrific attacks in Longueval and Delville wood, and the French pressing forward south of Peronne.

Floods Aid Germans Floods are helping the Germans withstand the allied onslaught, not only in the western, but the eastern battle front. So devastating has been the French artillery fire that on the left bank of the Somme across from Peronne a new marsh has been created by the blasting away of the earth by shells. Water from the Somme has seeped into the vast shell craters, making a veritable inferno of mud, fire, smoke, steel and fumes of exploding shells.

In Galicia Petrograd reported today that overflowing of the river Dniester had hampered the Russian advance.

Riga Assault Continued On the northern line General Brusiloff was hurling his men forward today in a continuation of the assault on the Riga sector. Dispatches from Berlin reflected the anxiety there of the Teutonic forces to withstand this tremendous pressure without a considerable retirement.

Yesterday's gains by the French assault around Peronne give the Franco-British forces a perfected line of communication in the rail-line from Cler nearly to Comblis. In a general way, the line of the front has been used by the Germans as a depot distribution point today with the town of Comblis falling at any time the French forces have their support.

WOMAN STRUCK BUT UNHURT IN LOOP ACCIDENT

Mrs. Edwin Grayburn, 1503 Mississippi street, was knocked down but not injured except for minor bruises by an automobile driven by C. F. Dahl, Viroqua druggist, at Fourth and Main streets late Thursday afternoon. Dahl was running slowly at the time. He told the police when taken to central station that he was running a new car with which he was not well acquainted, and that he attempted to set the breaks to avoid Mrs. Grayburn, his foot struck the accelerator pedal instead, and leaped forward.

Dahl was released, after leaving his name and address with the police. Mrs. Grayburn did not want any action taken.

Three alleged violators of the automobile rules were to appear in court before Police Justice Hunt Friday afternoon. All of the cases were adjourned from previous sessions. Those to appear are P. J. Iverson, charged with leaving his car on the wrong side of the street; Reuben Trane, accused of a similar fracture. At the instance of neighbors who who is alleged to have neglected the dimmer rule.

No new warrants have been issued.

SENATE REFUSES TO PRINT PROPOGANDA OF BETHLEHEM FIRM

WASHINGTON, July 21.—After the most bitter debate of the session, the senate today reversed itself and refused temporarily to permit the Bethlehem Steel company to have its anti-government armor plant propaganda printed as a "public document."

Senator Penrose had obtained unanimous consent for the printing. Senator Reed of Missouri, arriving later, attacked the senate's action bitterly and engaged in a heated personal controversy with Penrose and his colleague, Oliver.

Senator Reed assailed Senator Penrose for having attempted to make the volume a public document so it could be franked through the mails.

"An outside company cannot frank matters unless a senator co-operates by lending his frank," objected Senator Smith of Georgia.

"That very practice is going on now and on a large scale," declared Overman warmly. "It's illegal, but the mails are being piled with seed stuff for private firms, sent free."

"Yes, and I can guess the two senators who will help the Bethlehem company," said Reed, looking towards Senator Penrose and Oliver of Pennsylvania.

In the heat of the debate over the individual case, Senator Overman's general charge was ignored.

JOSEPH BARTSCH BURIED SATURDAY

Joseph Bartsch, aged 40, who committed suicide by holding a lighted stick of dynamite in his mouth, and whose body was found in a horribly mutilated condition Thursday morning, will be buried on Saturday afternoon. Funeral services will be held at 1 o'clock from the residence in the town of Greenfield, three miles from where the body was found by a searching party. Services will also be held at 2 o'clock from the German Reformed church in Mormon Coulee. Rev. Henry Andreas will officiate at both.

Bartsch leaves a widow and six children. His family said today that they know of no motive for the act, and are firmly convinced that Bartsch became despondent on account of the intense heat in which he was working on the road.

GENERAL NAVAL BILL IN SENATE FOR LAST TIME

Measure Directs Immediate Construction of Four Dreadnoughts and Four Battle Cruisers of Latest Type

157 VESSELS PROVIDED

Experts Believe in Three Years United States Will Have Navy Second Only to England

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Efforts to decrease this year's proposed navy program—the greatest one year program ever proposed—were defeated by decisive votes in the senate this afternoon.

Senator Cummins' amendment to reduce the bill to two battleships and four battle cruisers was defeated, 14 to 60.

Senator Townsend was defeated 58 to 15 in an attempt to lower the program to four battleships and four battle cruisers in three years.

Senator Kenyon's motion to lower the number of battleships in the entire program from ten to six and to order two instead of four constructed immediately, was defeated, 17 to 58.

Senator Thomas' attempt to substitute the house proposal of five battle cruisers was beaten, 12 to 65.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The general naval bill directing immediate construction of four dreadnoughts and four battle cruisers of the most modern type came up for the senate's final approval today.

With the proportionate number of scout cruisers, destroyers, submarines and aircraft this program will cost for the first year $315,000,000.

At the end of three years, the time set for completing the program, the United States will have added 157 war vessels of all types and will have, in the opinion of United States experts, a navy superior to any other except England's.

The cost of the three-year program will be $588,180,576 for vessels alone. The terms of the senate bill, however, have yet to meet the approval of the house.

Senator Swanson, in charge of the measure, expecting opposition in the house has conducted a quiet campaign organizing the "big navy" forces for several days. He predicted today that although there will be a warm contest, the house finally would adopt a measure similar to the senate.

In addition to the naval program the bill provides a government owned armor plant and the equipment of four navy yards—Puget Sound, Boston, Philadelphia, and Norfolk—for the construction of battleships.

While some of these warships are to be built in government yards it is expected that the armor plate plant will not be finished in time to furnish material for any of the present program.

The bill also provides that line officers of the navy hereafter shall be promoted by competition and selection rather than by seniority and send for many reorganizations within the navy department.

The largest previous naval bill was for $260,000,000 by Great Britain in 1914-15.

U. S. Favors Commission

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The probability of a reply tomorrow or the next day to Carranza's note suggesting a commission to take up the Mexican problem was intimated after a conference of over an hour between Mexican Ambassador Arredondo, Acting Secretary of State Polk and American Ambassador Fletcher today. Decision on the plan, as so far determined, is up to the state department, it was said. From the favorable progress reported after today's conference it is believed the coming reply will be an acceptance of the Mexican proposal.

The commission principle has been accepted by this government, it is understood, but there have remained details of the method of choosing the members, the extent of their powers and the scope of discussion still to be worked out.

RENEWS SUIT FOR INJURY TO AUTO ON SPUR TRACK

Suit for the recovery of $250 for damages done to his automobile when it was struck by a Burlington road switch engine on the spur track at Twenty-eighth street, about a year ago, has been started in circuit court by Albert R. Nelson, against the La Crosse Stone company.

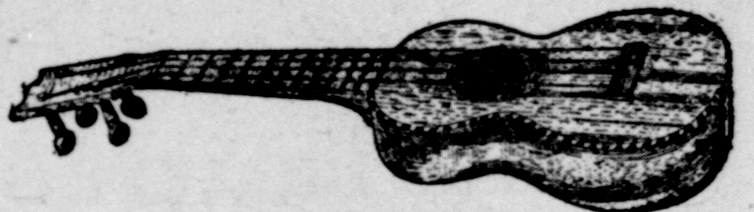

Mr. Nelson first sued the Burlington railroad. Circuit court then determined that the spur on which the accident occurred was owned by the stone concern, and the case non-suited.

Papers in the suit, filed on Friday morning, allege the view across the stone company's track was obstructed by a large pile of sand and crushed rock. Mr. Nelson declares that the flagman signalled him not to cross the track, and then told him to go ahead. His daughter was driving the car. As he crossed the track the rear wheels of his machine were struck by a rapidly moving engine.

The suit will be heard at the November term of circuit court.

COUNTY DEMOCRATS TO BE LINED UP FOR PRIMARIES

Before the middle of next week a roundup of democratic candidates for county offices will have been completed, according to announcement by County Chairman Albert C. Wolfe. The head of the county organization is contemplating a canvass of all the potential candidates in the ranks in the next few days, with a view to marshalling his forces for the September primaries.

Mr. Wolfe said he had no definite information as yet of any democratic candidacies for county offices. He said, however, that most of the candidacies would be out from cover by the end of next week.

A meeting of the county democrats may be called in the near future, Mr. Wolfe indicated.

SENATE DEFEATS BOB'S EFFORT TO CURB WALL STREET

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 21.—Senator La Follette again delayed passage of the naval bill on Thursday, continuing until a few minutes before adjournment the attack he began on Wednesday against the measure. As soon as he concluded the senate defeated, 44 to 8, his amendment to prohibit use of the navy to collect private debts or enforce claims of American citizens or corporations.

In a seven hour speech Senator La Follette charged that the big financial interests of the country, centered in two great Wall street groups known as the Morgan and Standard Oil combinations, were responsible for the movement for a large army and navy.

Speaking on his amendment, the Wisconsin senator declared he had been informed upon good authority that General Carranza was negotiating agreements along those lines with Latin-American countries and later would ask the United States to enter into it.

The proposed naval program, Senator La Follette declared, meant the inauguration of a policy to build a navy as great or greater than Great Britain's within the next ten years.

"But when we have done that, what then?" he continued. "When you build, England and Germany will build more. You will drive them to it and after you have spent $315,000,000 you will just find yourselves in a new place to start. Your only limit then will be the limit of taxation upon the American people. Such a course violates all precedents and principles of the government."

After adjournment Senator Swanson said he expected the bill's passage on Friday.

TWO MORE FACTORIES ARE INCLUDED IN WALKOUTS

MILWAUKEE, July 21.—Machinists walked out at two more smaller shops here today in the strike for an eight-hour day. About 100 men quit work at the Smith Engineering company and the T. L. Smith company.

Many girls employed in textile works who were on a strike, returned to their work today at the Everwear and Hole Proof hosiery companies and the Phoenix Knitting company. The boarders, men who shape the stockings, are still out, however, and are holding up the manufacture of the product.

A temporary halt was called today on the spread of the strike, by E. L. Adams, strike organizer. Adams said that conferences between parties who wished to see peaceful settlement of the trouble were pending and that no further walkouts would be made until these conferences had been held.

He indicated that the result of the conference would not be known until Monday.

DAIRYMAN HALED INTO COURT FOR ALLEGED FILTH

At the instance of neighbors who have been deluging the health department with complaints, Dr. J. M. Furstman, city health commissioner, has obtained a warrant charging Simon Larson, 1419 Adams street, with maintaining unsanitary premises in violation of the health ordinance. Larson was to be arraigned late Friday afternoon.

Larson runs a dairy at the place complained of. He has a herd of some ten cows, supplying milk to many persons on the south side, the health commissioner said.

If the dairyman does not plead guilty, but denies the charge placed against him, Dr. Furstman said that a number of the neighbors are ready to take the stand and testify as to conditions.

CASEMENT MAY BE SAVED FROM DEATH MAY ENTER ASYLUM

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Sir Roger Casement, convicted of high treason against the British crown, will escape the penalty of death.

Information to this effect has been received here. The understanding is that Sir Roger will be sent to an insane asylum.

By direction of President Wilson, the state department unofficially has made representations to the British government in behalf of the commutation of the death sentence of the former British consular official.

Great Tact Needed It was necessary for the department to proceed with a great deal of tact. In view of the fact that Sir Roger was a British subject, the United States could not officially concern itself with his fate.

Mind Called Abnormal It is the understanding here that Sir Roger will be sent to an insane asylum because of evidence obtained indicating that his mind is abnormal.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS HURTS NERVOUS SYSTEM

BY SAMUEL G. DIXON, M. D.
(Penn. Commissioner of Health)
Infantile paralysis is a disease that affects the nervous system. It often causes death, and again, the acute stage frequently subsides and leaves paralysis of one or more of the limbs that often lasts through life. Today we do not know what causes the disease, therefore preventative measures must be broad. You must keep the children away from insect life, such as flies, mosquitoes, fleas, bed bugs, ticks, ants, lice, etc. You should see that all rats and mice around the building are killed. Pet cats and dogs should be washed with a 2 per cent carbolic acid solution. Everything should be kept clean about the home, including the children.

Children should be fed well but not indulged in large quantities of water, ice cream or other frozen dishes on a full stomach, as that will often cause acute indigestion and render them susceptible to other diseases. In other words, the digestion should be guarded carefully.

Children should have plenty of sleep. They should not associate with other children that are sick. Their homes should be well ventilated, but screened. All foodstuffs should be protected.

Children's mouths should be rinsed out and their throats gargled with Dobell's solution after each meal. If the children are too young to rinse or gargle, wash the mouth with a piece of fabric dipped in Dobell's solution.

Children should be kept out of crowded places. The youngsters should not be permitted to sit on the damp ground nor have their bodies chilled, day or night. They should not bathe in cold water.

SOCIETY DOUBLE MURDER SCANDAL IS CHILEAN

BUENOS AYRES, July 21.—A sensational double murder, involving persons figuring in exclusive Argentine and Chilean society circles, was reported in dispatches from Santiago, Chile, Thursday.

Deputy Riesco, son of a former president of Chile, and himself a member of the Chilean national congress, entered the Hotel Oddo and found Miss Blanca Figueroa, beautiful daughter of the Chilean minister to Argentina, in the company of a well dressed Argentine man, whose identity has not been established. He shot Miss Figueroa through the heart and killed the Argentine man with two bullets through the brain. Jealousy is supposed to have been the motive for the crime, though Riesco refused to answer questions put by the police.

WASHINGTON TAKES BOTH ENDS OF TWIN BILL FROM THE SOX

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 21.—Washington took both ends of a double header from Chicago on Thursday, 4 to 3 and 2 to 1, each contest going ten innings.

In the first inning of the opening game Boehling forced two runs over by his wildness, but thereafter out-pitched Williams, who was taken out in the tenth after Moeller singled and stole second, and Foster also hit safely. Russell then went in to pitch, and Moeller scored the winning run on an infield out.

In the second game Weaver scored Chicago's only run on his double, E. Collins' scratch single, on which Harper's throw to third was too late, an infield out and Ness' sacrifice fly. Shanks' home run over J. Collins' head in the eighth tied the score, and in the tenth Rice singled, was sacrificed to second, and scored the winning run on Gharrity's drive to the left field bleachers. The scores:

MATTY UNDECIDED WHETHER HE WILL PITCH FOR REDS

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 21.—Christy Mathewson, new manager of the Reds, may or may not pitch for his team. It all depends now how he feels, and what his other pitchers do.

That's the way Matty sized it up on his arrival here today.

Matty is troubled with a lame side and it is likely that if he does pitch, he will not do soon. However, the Reds at present, including Matty, have only six pitchers and have six straight double headers to play on their eastern trip, which starts Tuesday.

Matty, Outfielder Rousch and infielder Bill McKee, all of whom arrived here together, were expected to sign Cincinnati contracts by noon, took charge of the team in today's game with the Phillies.

Charley Herzog, ex-manager of the Reds, and Outfielder Wade Killifer left with Manager McGraw of the Giants for Chicago last night. McGraw plans to use Herzog at short today, he said, and probably keep him there until Fletcher is able to play.

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's Hero

Grover Cleveland Alexander. G. Cleveland held the Cincinnati batters to two hits and just for luck barked out two doubles on his own hook and scored a run.

The Yanks won a great tactical victory, losing the game, but getting through without injury to a man.

Ferdie Schupp held the Cubs to four hits, fanned seven men and lost, but 'tis only fair to say that Hendrix held the Giants to three hits.

Bush of the Athletics pitched corking ball in the second game with Cleveland and won, breaking the club's losing streak which had reached nine games with defeat in the first game.

Shanks, the Washington third sacker, found one of White Hose Russell's slants for a home run in the second game. His team, by the way, is moving into first division by virtue of its double win.

SPEAKER LEADS BAN'S SLUGGERS

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 21.—With a percentage of .389, Tris Speaker today is still leading the American league sluggers. Joe Jackson is in second place with .360, but Cobb has gained on Jackson, so that the Georgia Peach is only three points behind the White Sox batsman.

Chick Gandil has lost the honor of leading the league in sacrifices. Eddie Collins and Buck Weaver of the White Sox and Vitt of the Tigers, each having twenty-two each.

Cobb is running away with base-running honors, having thirty-six steals to his credit. High of the Yanks, who is only batting .205, is next with twenty-two.

WINS 10 MILE RUN

CHICAGO, July 21.—C. Mellor of the Mystic Athletic club, Chicago, won the ten mile run in Grant park here Thursday against a field of twenty-five runners. Sidney Hatch, Chicago, finished two seconds behind Mellor. John Cosopolous, Chicago, and George T. Black, Sportsmen's club, Toronto, were third and fourth respectively. The race was held under the auspices of the Canadian Red Cross.

COLUMBIA TO KEEP ROWING

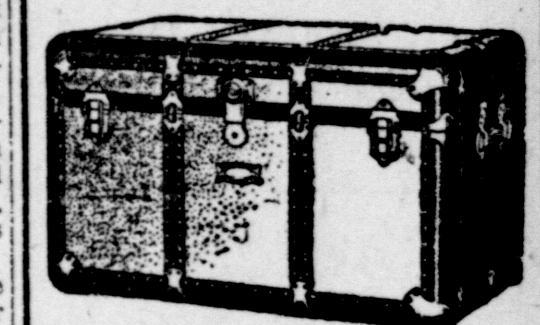

NEW YORK, July 21.—Columbia university will not give up intercollegiate rowing, as two of its directors recommended. Jim Rice, veteran coach, has a new contract today, good until 1921.

EXPECT RUSSIAN TO BECOME FAMILIAR LANGUAGE IN EUROPE

* LONDON, July 5.—(By ma) —The Russian language, hitherto almost unused in western Europe, promises to become a well-known tongue in the future.

German, French and Spanish were the three leading tongues taught in Great Britain before the war. German has been almost abandoned. French and Spanish, respectively, now rank second and third to Russian, which is eagerly sought by persons looking to vast commercial intercourse between Russia and the allies after the war.

On the other hand, Spanish leads in Germany, according to reports here. The Germans see a temporary loss of trade with the allies, but intend to breach the gulf with a greatly increased South American trade.

LIGHTNING KILLS TWO

BRIGHTON, Iowa, July 21.—While leaving the chautauqua grounds here late Wednesday afternoon, Gilmore Swaney, superintendent of schools, and the Rev. J. W. B. Jefferson, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, were instantly killed by a bolt of lightning. Rev. Vernon Pike of the Methodist church was also hit, but will recover.

Many a man who has a reputation for being good natured has a wife who has never suspected the fact.

UNITED PRESS OFFICE
BOY CITED TO FRENCH ORDER FOR BRAVERY

BY HENRY WOOD

PARIS, July 1.—(By mail.)—Every United Press office boy in America, and all the other office boys as far as that's concerned will be glad to know that Jean Vallier, an office boy in the Paris office of the United Press, has been cited in the order of the day several times for conspicuous bravery in the French trenches.

Vallier is now 19 and has been at the French front for a year and a half. A year ago he received his first citation and was given for recompense the Croix de Guerre or six days' leave at Paris. He disdainfully rejected the former and took the latter.

The joy of being back in Paris proved too much for Jean and he overstay his leave two days. He was taken before his commanding general and for punishment ordered to the front line trenches.

It so happens that after Paris there is no place in the world that Jean loves more dearly than the front line trenches. It is the only place at the front where a man has a chance to perform those conspicuous deeds of bravery that win him citations with their accompanying war crosses—or trips to Paris. It took Jean but a little time to put two and two together and work out his system.

Since then Jean has been cited to the order of the day four different times. Each time he has taken his six days' leave at Paris instead of the war cross. Each time at Paris he has overstayed his leave two days, and each time upon his return to the front he has been ordered to the front line trenches.

Jean thinks his system beats anything that anybody ever worked out for Monte Carlo or anywhere else.

Temperament, in a husband, is that which keeps a wife in a state of breathless uncertainty as to whether he will come home with a box of flowers or a grouch.

BRITISH GOLFERS LIKE NEW GIRL CADDIES

LONDON, July 5.—(By mail.)—British golf players—all above military age just now—are strong for the girl caddie.

The club carrying member of the opposite sex is a decided success. What she lacks in carrying clubs she gains by lack of irritating comment.

Experienced and veteran golfers alike declare that the feminine caddie perhaps fails to take such a keen interest in the game as the boy caddie, but she doesn't attempt to take all the joy of a perfectly played "four" by piping.

"Mr Soandso always does that hole in three."

The girl caddie is doing the work on scores of British links while her brother is making munitions.

If it were not for their whiskers all the inhabitants of Gimpeska, Russia, would be clean shaven.

NEURALGIA'S ONE SYMPTOM

Neuralgia is a disease which has but one symptom—pain.

The pain of neuralgia is sharp and shooting with intervals of freedom.

An attack of neuralgia does not give immunity but recurrences are the rule. The same nerve is generally affected which means that this particular nerve has lost its resistance and that there will be recurring attacks until the strength of the nerve is built up.

How can the strength of a nerve be restored? The nerves are nourished entirely by the blood and weak nerves are toned up by supplying to the blood the elements that the nerves lack. As the general health and strength of the patient are built up the nerves resume their normal functions, inflammation caused by lack of nutrition disappears and the neuralgic attacks cease.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic exceptionally well suited for the treatment of neuralgia because they contain no alcohol, stimulating or habit-forming drugs. The tonic treatment with these pills is well worth a trial by any sufferer from neuralgia.

Write today for booklet on nervous disorders to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells the pills or they will be sent postpaid at 50 cents per box.

FORECASTS OVERSEAS AEROPLANE SERVICE AND AERIAL ARMIES

NEW YORK, July 21.—An overseas aeroplane service between Europe and America and veritable European battlefields are expected by a French aerial expert who talked about the probability today to materialize within the present year. He pointed to the trip of the giant submarine from Germany to Baltimore as justification for what might otherwise be termed a wild guess.

"There are going to be flocks and flocks of aeroplanes used on both sides and aerial battles, with aeroplane armies, will become important and features of the great war," said he.

"How to transport guns and ammunition by air is a matter that is receiving expert attention now. Aeroplanes are being used that can carry a five hundred pound bomb and they are so steady and safe that when the bomb is dropped the pilot does not note any lightening of the load. To be able to transport light cannon in this way from one part of the line to another would be a tremendous advantage and it is safe to prophesy that this will be done before long."

"Clouds of aeroplanes are going to darken the sky before the war is over, and some of them will be huge air transports in overseas commerce. The aeroplane has only begun to be used."

COAL OPERATORS CONFER

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 21.—Problems of vital importance to the coal mining industry of this section of the country were taken up for consideration by the Southern Appalachian Coal Operators' association at its semi-annual meeting here Friday. With the prospect of an unusually active and strenuous season, the operators face a serious shortage of cars with which to haul their product to market. A shortage of labor is also threatened, while the increased cost of mining supplies is still another source of worry for the mine owners.

No practicable scheme to prevent orange marmalade from wiggling when served has ever been evolved.

CHICAGO HORSE DEALERS LEFT OUT IN THE COLD BY BUYERS OF GOVERNMENT

CHICAGO, July 21.—Because the United States army could not wait for horses from the Chicago market to acclimate themselves to Texas Mexico weather, this market was left out in the cold when the government placed its horse contracts.

This was the way Chicago horse buyers accounted for the fact that the government is buying its horses for the border from Kansas City, Wichita, Kan., and San Antonio markets.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

RUSSIAN ZEMSTVO GREAT CITIZEN RELIEF SOCIETY

Home Bodies Took Up Relief Work Less Than Two Weeks After Start of the War

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS (United Press Staff Correspondent.) PETROGRAD, June 18.—(By Mail.)—There are two mighty armies in Russia. One works in the front line trenches, shoots and charges bayonets. The other works back of the line and furnishes the front line what it needs.

One is an army of soldiers. The other is an army of citizens. But both are under the orders of the general staff. The situation is unique in history.

The main corps of this citizen army is known as the "All-Russian Zemstvo Union," and no other nation in the world boasts anything like it. If the troops need new fur coats the general staff tells the Zemstvo union and the Zemstvo union provides them. Or maybe the staff asks for socks and underwear, or boots, or bridges, or daggers, or bath-trains, or tannin, or chop axes. Whatever in reason it asks for, it gets.

Soldiers and citizenry are working hand in hand. This statement is literal, not merely a figure of speech.

Organized in 1864

The Zemstvo—pronounced Zem-stervo—came into being in 1864, or three years after the serfs were freed and the land divided. It began very modestly and developed slowly, members being elected from three classes: Peasants, the landed gentry and the urbanites owning shops, factories or other property. Originally a Zemstvo composed of say 60 members, averaged about 20 peasants, 20 gentry and 20 town property owners, but in 1890 the gentry were given by law what by the very nature of things they had had from the start—a preponderant voice.

Russia is divided into 51 provinces, these into districts averaging about 10 districts to the province. At present 39 provinces and about 350 districts have Zemstvo organizations.

Annual Convention

The district institution once a year sends delegates to a ten-day provincial Zemstvo at which the work of the past year is reviewed and the work for the coming year co-ordinated. Further, a provincial board of four men is named, these to devote their entire time to this work. The ordinary member of the Zemstvo receives no pay. The four board members are on salary as are the four members of a similar district board who do nothing else but supervise district work.

The Zemstvo has but slight legislative functions—levying local taxes, etc.—and until the war its activities were confined to four spheres: working the roads, supervising the schools, aiding farmers with advice and looking after the hospitals; the primary needs of country districts. Restricted in scope though the Zemstvo was, it was nevertheless the apprenticeship of the people. It furnished the peasants with their first means of participating in public work. Side by side with their farmers, these farmers, newly out of serfdom, elected their Zemstvo representatives and labored for the community and for Russia.

Go in for Relief Work

Such was the Zemstvo at the beginning of the war.

On August 12, 1914, less than two weeks from the commencement of hostilities a general meeting of delegates elected by the Provincial Zemstvos was held in Moscow. It was then and there decided to form the All-Russian Zemstvo union "for relief work among sick and wounded soldiers." And every Zemstvo joined in save one, this solitary abstainer preferring to work independently.

"Here we are: Use us!" said the Zemstvo people to the government, and the government accepted. They were to be under the orders of the war department and available only for work in the interior. The limitation was put upon them; they did not specify the limitation.

But the restriction did not hold. The army needed doctors, nurses, hospitals. The Zemstvo had been the hospital business for 40 years and it went to the army's aid upon the very field of battle and in the front line trenches.

After this things moved rapidly. Hospitals in the interior were organized. So were first-aid, distributing centers, bases. "Front Brigades" were formed for handling wounded, military trains equipped. During October and November, 1914, the union sent the Serbian army 215,000 fur and other warm garments, paid for by the Russian government but bought by the Zemstvo and handled by them.

Furnished Clothing

In October, 1914, General Shuvayev, then head of the commissary, (now minister of war) asked the union to make underwear for his men. The union replied by delivering the army before the end of the month over 7,500,000 complete suits! And this was only a side order; the union did this without slacking up on any of its other jobs.

How was it done? It was very simple. The Zemstvo is a people's organization. Peasants are in it. So the Zemstvo simply went to a lot of time and said:

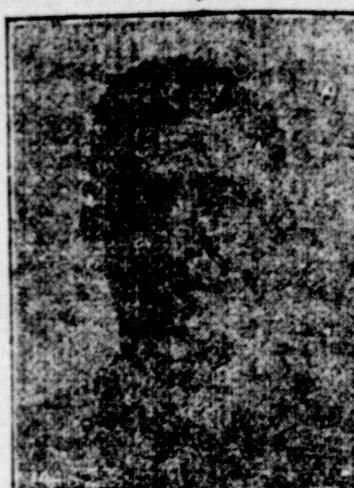

"Make us these articles. We want them for the army."

And over night, almost, the articles were cut and sewed by Russian seamstresses.

Another order, similarly executed, was for wearing apparel to the tune of seventeen million pieces. Russian co-operative societies in a large measure filled these orders, societies em-

Nature's Creation Given the Credit

THE BEST INVESTMENT I EVER MADE.

J. S. SMITH.

April 20, 1916.
In April 1915, I was in very bad shape from Tuberculosis of the Lungs. In May I was bedfast, and in June my doctor stated that I would die. My wife's mother, Mrs. Jennie Foster, Route No. 4, Xenia, Ohio, had been cured of tuberculosis by Nature's Creation and I concluded that I would give it a trial. By the time I had taken only four bottles, I was able to get up, and from that time on I never went back to bed. Continued to improve steadily until I am able to say that I am entirely well. Weigh 130 pounds, only weighed 135 pounds when I started to take Nature's Creation. At that time I had terrible night sweats, fever, chills and everything that goes with it. All these symptoms left me after I had taken the second bottle, and have been free of them ever since. My doctor examined my lungs and pronounced me well and sound; this was after I had taken only 15 bottles. He asked me where I got those new lungs, he could hardly believe it was me. I can highly recommend Nature's Creation to any one and know that it is the cheapest and best investment I ever made.

WOMAN A PHYSICAL WRECK

Tells in Following Letter How She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Milwaukee, Wis.—"Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was a physical wreck. I had been going to a doctor for several years but he did me no good. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I decided to give it a fair trial, and it gave me relief from bearing down pains which had been so bad that I would have to lie down. I also used the Sanative Wash and it has done me a great deal of good, and I am not troubled with a weakness any more."—Mrs. P. L. BRILL, 1299 Booth Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

The most successful remedy for woman's ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has stood the test for forty years, which would be impossible if it did not have genuine merit.

For special advice, free, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

THE HASKIN LETTER

THE ARMY'S PARKS
By Frederic J. Haskin

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 20.—In an inconspicuous corner of Potomac park, away from the well-worn ways of the sightseer, are the war department's greenhouses. These houses have no connection with military matters, but are used for the propagation of all the various species of flowers, shrubs and plants that ornament the parks of the national capital, with the exception of the bulb supply, which comes from Holland. This summer the whole city is brilliant with beds of red cannas, purple heliotropes and pink and red geraniums, all of which have been grown and planted by the war department.

Just why the administration of a municipal park system, including the propagation of flowers, should be assigned to the war department itself, but the popular story is that the parks were originally planned for military reasons. At the time Major L'Enfant was preparing his plans of the capital for President Washington, the French revolution was drawing to an end. A young Corsican by the name of Bonaparte had suddenly appeared, placed his cannon in the center of the public squares of Paris and thus laid siege to four streets at once. Immediately the mob rule was broken and replaced by martial law, and the whole world, including Major L'Enfant, was much impressed by the strategic qualifications of city parks. Hence Washington was given many squares and circles and triangles after the fashion of Paris, and these were placed under the supervision of the war department.

Whatever the true reason for placing the management with the choice was wise. With their usual remarkable executive ability, the military authorities have put as much energy and thought into taking care of the parks and growing flowers as they would into planning a military campaign. Today, Washington has the finest park system in the country, with a working force of thirty skilled gardeners, large greenhouse facilities and its own mounted police force. There are four hundred parks in all, comprising an area of twelve hundred acres, and for the flower beds scattered throughout their length the greenhouses raise between six and seven hundred thousand plants each year. (Rock Creek Park is not included in these figures, since it alone is under municipal jurisdiction.)

As each new season approaches, the old flowers are removed and new ones substituted, the change being made so quickly in some instances that one morning there are pansies in a flower bed and the next morning tall red cannas. Take, for example, Lafayette Park, which is directly opposite the White house and for that reason is probably more familiar to visitors than any other. This park is never without floral displays of one kind or another from early March to late October. In October the fading summer plants are dug up and the soil fertilized, after which some beds are planted Holland bulbs while in others are placed pansy plants that have been growing in the greenhouses ever since the preceding July. By the first of March the first crocuses and jonquils have crept up; a little later the hyacinth and tulips are all in bloom, and in May the pansies begin to blossom. The color effects achieved by using these different varieties of plants are such as to command the admiration of the most casual pedestrian. A bed of bright red tulips against the light green background of early spring foliage, or a bed of purple, yellow and white pansies invariably causes the stranger to stop and pay silent or exclamatory tribute to their beauty.

By the end of May, however, the pansies are all gone, as well as the blue flowers, and the beds are then planted with landscape effects of heliotrope and geraniums, and masses of tall cannas. These plants are propagated in the greenhouses from slips taken from the original plants, and in the case of cannas, the roots. The parks are patrolled by a number of bicycle and unmounted policemen who see that waste paper and rubbish are not scattered over the well-kept lawns, and who protect the flowers and blooming shrubs from acts of vandalism. This separate police force has proved so extremely efficient and satisfactory with the Washington park system that now other cities are contemplating adopting the plan.

The most attractive of the city parks is Potomac park, which stretches for several miles along the Potomac river and is traversed by wide boulevards, fringed with splendid shade trees. Here, in the spring, hundreds of iris flowers line the river banks and quantities of peonies burst into bloom, while later many varieties of summer roses and other hardy perennials extend along its course for two or three miles.

Potomac Park is the big public recreation park of Washington. In building a public park system, the military man has not neglected the practical for the aesthetic. In one corner are a number of excellent tennis courts used by seven thousand residents, to whom are issued on the average of twenty-two hundred permits a month. There is also a large bathing beach not far from the Washington monument, with the best modern bath house facilities, patronized daily by hundreds of people. As soon as the public schools close, the children flock to this beach, where often they learn how to swim under the supervision of the life guards.

But as a place of recreation, Potomac Park has just started. Congress has finally authorized the building of a huge amusement park, and work has already begun on the construction of fourteen baseball diamonds, thirty-two tennis courts; two golf courses with a half-mile driving track; two new swimming pools and facilities for boating and

To Keep Your Baby Perfectly Well This Summer

1. Keep the baby cool.
2. Keep him outdoors as much as possible.
3. Give him plenty of boiled water.
4. Consult your doctor at the first sign of illness.
5. Make his food light. Don't give him raw cow's milk with its heavy, indigestible curd—and its germs of summer complaint, that kills more babies than any other cause in the world.

Give him the food that's as safe from germs—and as light—as mother's milk itself—

Nestlé's Food

(A Complete Food—Not a Milk Modifier)

Nestlé's is safe—free from dangers of raw cow's milk. In Nestlé's you get milk from healthy cows, purified—free from germs—the calf needs are modified, the baby needs are added. Reduced to powder—it comes to you in an air-tight can. No hand has touched it—no germ can reach it. It is a complete food—so you add only water and boil one minute—and you know that you are giving your baby the food his little body needs.

Don't shock your baby's stomach by changing him from your breast milk to raw cow's milk. In Nestlé's he will feel no change.

ADVISES STUDENTS WHO EARN OWN WAY

MADISON, Wis., July 21.—Information about temporary and permanent jobs for students who wish to earn part or all of their own way through college is summed up in a pamphlet recently issued by the Student Employment Bureau at the University of Wisconsin.

The bureau, which is maintained under the direction of the Alumni association, assisted 559 students in getting work during the past year. About 446 of them came from Wisconsin. Permanent positions were obtained for 110 students, and 612 jobs were secured.

Students trained along some such line as stenography or carpentry are very much in demand, but for untrained labor there are often four or five candidates for each job. Students who are willing to heat rugs, take care of lawns, or attend to furnaces are often enabled to make a large part of their extra expenses and sometimes to earn as much as $75 during the year at odd jobs.

New students are warned against coming to the university with less than $200 above their entrance fees.

EPIDEMIC FALLS OFF

NEW YORK, July 21.—A decided decrease in the number of new infantile paralysis cases showed in reports to the health department today on what physicians regarded as the first real test day of the week, in determining the course of the epidemic.

The new cases Thursday numbered 119 against 142 Wednesday.

WAVE OF CRIME IS ANNUAL VACATION SWEEPING BERLIN DEPRESSION BLAMED HEALTH BUREAU

THE HAGUE, July 2.—By Mail.—A wave of ghastly murders, suicides and other crimes of horrible character is sweeping Berlin.

Mental depression or insanity, due in some instances to the loss of relatives in the war and in others to lack of proper food, is held to be responsible by German criminologists.

Two girls robbed another in a Berlin manicure shop a few days ago. To escape arrest they tried to hang her from a chandelier. She pleaded to be cut down. They let her body drop when she had become unconscious, and coolly hacked her head almost off with a razor. Then they packed the body in a trunk and shipped it to another city. The girl murderers were caught and sentenced.

A brief item in the German papers under the caption, "A Love Drama," revealed a murder in a wealthy Berlin home. A young Russian, who had lived in Berlin as the servant of a German for seven years, became infatuated with the daughter of his employer and desired to marry her. She refused him time and again. One Sunday morning while she was alone in her bedroom, the Russian entered, locked the doors and sprang at her. She escaped his embrace after a struggle and ran into a closet locking the door. The Russian fired one shot through the door, without wounding the girl, and then attempted suicide, shooting himself in the head. The girl's brother, an army officer, who was at home on leave, heard the shots and ran into the room. The Russian seized a pair of scissors and stabbed him to death.

Under the heading, "Sentenced to Four Years' Imprisonment," the Berlin papers carried another war tragedy. A policeman shot and killed his sister. On the witness stand he pleaded that the girl was despondent and begged him to shoot her. He got off with a four years' sentence.

One evening a few days ago a German officer was seen walking along the canal with a young woman. Suddenly the woman ran toward the water, plunged in and disappeared. The officer made no attempt to restrain her or to save her. "I am Lieutenant B.," he said to a passerby, and entered a waiting taxicab and drove away.

The owner of one of the largest Berlin restaurants, who had been at a city back of the front in charge of a food supply station, committed suicide recently. He left a note saying that his wife was unfaithful to him while he was away. The orchestra continued to play in his restaurant while his body was being borne away.

Practically nothing is published in the Berlin papers about suicides, possibly because of the depressing psychological effect of such news. Frequently the papers carry a line saying that "a man and woman were found dead in a hotel on Unter den Linden today."

STREET CAR BLOWN TO ATOMS IN ATTEMPT TO KILL STRIKEBREAKERS

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 21.—Another trolley car of the local traction company was blown up by dynamite Thursday, making the second attempt in two days to kill the strike-breaking crews. The first car out today on the West Pittston run was blown into splintered timbers. The motorman and conductor miraculously escaped death. The conductor was not injured but the motorman sustained lacerations of the body and will probably lose the sight of one eye. Because of the boycott there were no passengers aboard at the time.

The local street car strike has been in progress since October 14, 1915.

FEAR DISEASE—BANISH DOGS

COLUMBUS, N. M., July 21.—Fearing typhus fever and other diseases transmitted by vermin, Colonel William C. Hayes, commanding the Massachusetts militia here, has ordered that the hundreds of dogs adopted by the men upon their arrival be driven out of camp.

Don't take too much baggage. Don't take any cares or worries. Don't exercise too strenuously at first.

Don't eat injudiciously. Don't spend too much money. Don't forget that a rest is what you are there for and that a vacation that does not put new life into your body and joy into your heart is a failure.

MADISON, Wis., July 21.—It is time to take a vacation if you have not already. Everybody who works either mentally or physically needs a vacation sometime during the year. This advice has been sounded again and again in the state health bulletin.

Banish the thought that you cannot afford a vacation this year. The fact is, in general you cannot afford not to take one. You can't afford not to rest your mind and body from routine work.

Perhaps you have not thought what a break-down or spell of sickness would cost you. You may not afford an expensive trip to the seashore or the mountains, but you can afford a rest and a change of environment for at least a few days.

A few important points not to be overlooked in taking one's vacation are:

First, go where your health will not be in jeopardy. Stay at no place where flies are not properly screened against and their breeding places destroyed. Second, know that wherever you go there are sanitary means for the disposing of sewage. Third, know that the food served you is not fly-infected and that the milk is clean. Fourth, know that your drinking water is pure. Fifth, be vaccinated against typhoid fever before leaving home, thereby reducing your chances of contracting typhoid fever 90 or 100 per cent.

There are good liars, bad liars and darn liars, and then there's the press agent.

DRINK HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST

Says you really feel clean, sweet and fresh inside, and are seldom ill.

If you are accustomed to wake up with a coated tongue, foul breath or a dull, dizzy headache; or, if your meals sour and turn into gas and acids, you have a real surprise awaiting you.

To-morrow morning, immediately upon arising, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is intended to first neutralize and then wash out of your stomach, liver, kidneys and thirty feet of intestines all the indigestible waste, poisons, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal.

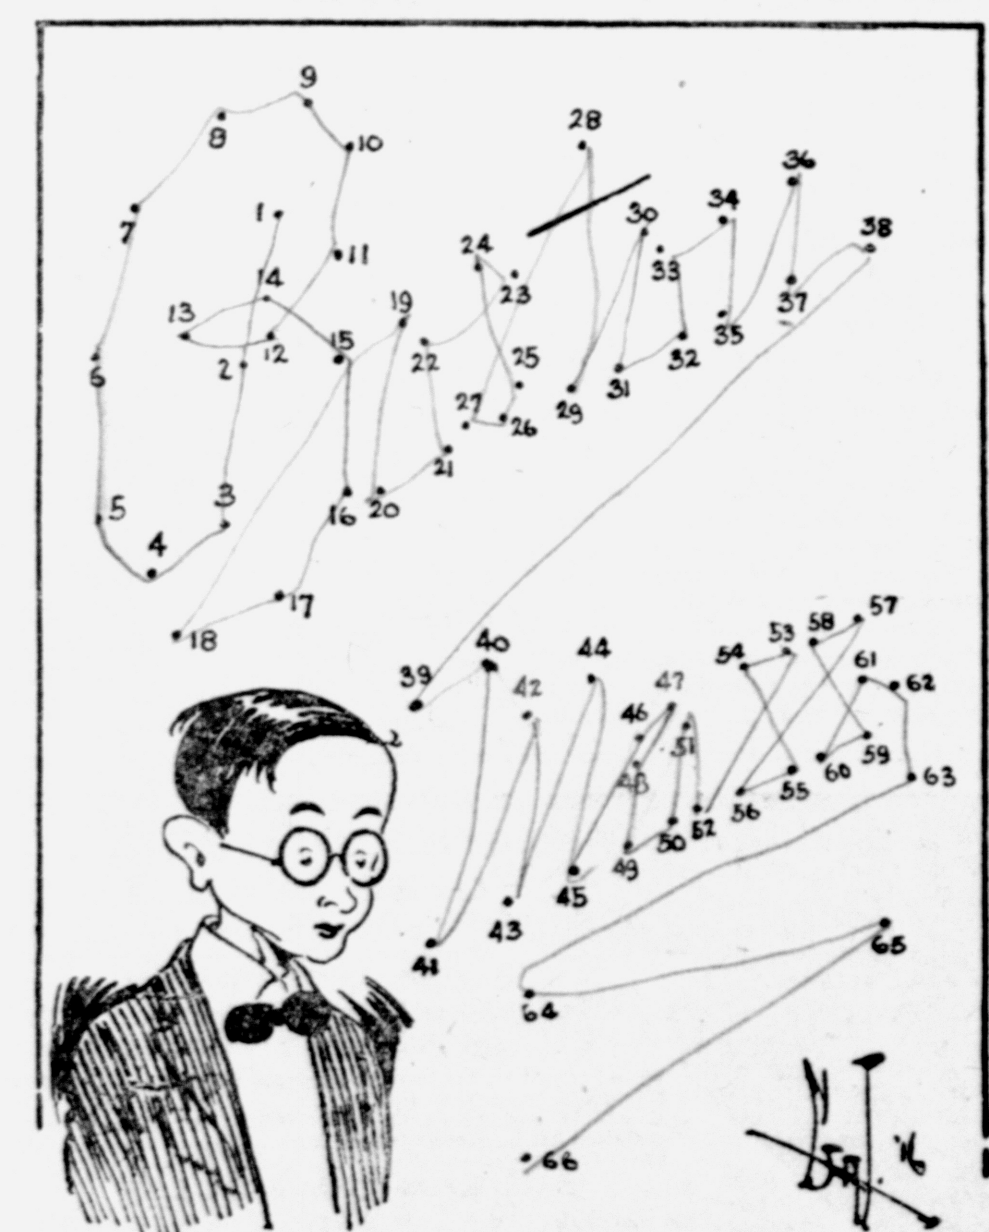

Those subject to sick headaches, backache, bilious attacks, constipation or any form of stomach trouble, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store and begin enjoying this morning inside-bath. It is said that men and women who try this become enthusiastic and keep it up daily. It is a splendid health measure for it is more important to keep clean and pure on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing disease, while the bowel pores do.

The principle of bathing inside is not new, as millions of people practice it. Just as hot water and soap cleanse, purify and freshen the skin, so hot water and a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Limestone phosphate is an inexpensive white powder and almost tasteless.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

THIS is the caution applied to the public announcement of Castoria that has been manufactured under the supervision of Chas. H. Fletcher for over 30 years—the genuine Castoria. We respectfully call the attention of fathers and mothers when purchasing Castoria to see that the wrapper bears his signature in black. When the wrapper is removed the same signature appears on both sides of the bottle in red. Parents who have used Castoria for their little ones in the past years need no warning against counterfeits and imitations, but our present duty is to call the attention of the younger generation to the great danger of introducing into their families spurious medicines. It is to be regretted that there are people who are now engaged in the nefarious business of putting up and selling all sorts of substitutes, or what should more properly be termed counterfeits, for medicinal preparations not only for adults, but worse yet, for children's medicines. It therefore devolves on the mother to scrutinize closely what she gives her child. Adults can do that for themselves, but the child has to rely on the mother's watchfulness. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

The Doctor's Advice

by Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply in any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice, free may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Bldg., College-Ellwood Sts., Dayton, O., enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only fictitious name will be used in my answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

forces are much impaired. I do not seem to be able to think clearly. I am much depressed all the time and my usual ambition and energy seem to have died. I have headache and pains in my back.

Answer: Your condition is identical to thousands of others brought to my attention yearly. Yes, your physical and mental forces are, as you say, much impaired, but you need not be alarmed over your condition. The use of three grain cadomene tablets should soon put you back in normal condition and fit to combat any troubles. Cultivate regular habits of living.

"Mite" asks "I seem to be shrinking in size. I am very pale and thin. I do not feel sick, but I'm very weak. I want to increase my weight."

Answer: You are anaemic and the food you eat does not properly nourish your system; three grain hypochloride tablets cause proper food assimilation and increase weight and strength. Take them with your meals. Sold in sealed packages.

"Mrs. Ella M." writes: "Please prescribe for me again. This time for my kidneys. I have chills and fever, look bad, have puffs under my eyes and my urine is dark in color and of bad odor. Sometimes my back hurts."

You should get almost instant relief from the use of balmwort tablets. I have prescribed these in numerous cases of kidney trouble and they have given excellent results. Most drug stores carry these tablets and they come in sealed tubes with proper directions.

"Mr. W." asks: "What can I do for a long continued case of constipation? I have headache and dizziness and my complexion is sallow. At night I can't sleep I'm so nervous."

Answer: Continued constipation affects the blood and makes it impure. You need a good blood purifier and laxative. Use three grain sulphur tablets (not sulphur). They aid digestion, act on the bowels and clean and purify the blood.

"S. F. E." writes: "I have a very severe case of dandruff. My scalp itches and my hair is coming out in handfuls."

Answer: Get a jar of plain yellow minoyl at your drug store. Wash the hair and while still wet rub well in to the scalp plain yellow minoyl. Rinse out thoroughly and your scalp will feel clean and active. Repeat this treatment three or four times after washing and in a few weeks all your dandruff should disappear and your hair become healthy and soft.

"Corpulent" asks: "What will overcome corpulence? I am so fat as to be in my own way. I'm short of breath and cannot stand exercise."

Answer: To reduce safely, use five grain arbolone tablets. They are the most reliable reducers I could prescribe. Many are pleased with results from arbolone.

"Misery" writes: "I have been a wornout man for the past few months. My physical and mental

Julia have returned from a visit with Mrs. Strouse's sister, Mrs. Stifel, at Lincoln, Ill. Mrs. Stifel accompanied them home for the remainder of the summer.

Miss Lettie Schall has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. B.
J. Fuller, and family at Kennan, Wis.

News has been received here of the marriage of Miss Grace Graham, daughter of Mrs. George Graham, to Mr. James Brennan. The wedding took place at Harrisburg, Pa., on Saturday, July 15th, after which the young couple went up into the Adirondack mountains to spend their honeymoon. Mr. Brennan is connected with the navy department at Washington, where they will make their future home.

The newly reorganized Tomah band held its first concert in Gillett park on Tuesday evening. An immense crowd turned out to hear the boys.

George King, and is also assisting in the care of Mrs. H. B. Johnson.
WOULD PREVENT HANGING
TOPEKA, Kas., July 21.—To prevent a blot being placed on the record of Kansas, which has not had a legal hanging in many years, Governor Capper and other officials and representative citizens of the state have appealed to President Wilson to exercise executive clemency in the case of Robert Stroud, a convicted murderer. Stroud was originally sentenced to be executed at the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth today, but an appeal to the supreme court of the United States has served as a temporary stay of execution. Failing to secure a reversal of the case at the hands of the highest tribunal the president will be urged to commute the sentence to life imprisonment.
Stroud was a prisoner at the federal penitentiary when he attacked and killed Andrew Turner, a guard. For this crime he was convicted of first degree murder and sentenced to death.

COOL WEATHER TO SAVE LAST OF BERRY CROP

DRESBACH, Minn., July 21.—
(Special.)—Wednesday was the first cool day for about two weeks. The extreme heat has been very hard on the berry crop, ripening them far too fast and making it difficult to get them to market in good condition.
This week will about finish the raspberries.

Purdy of Winona, Minn., Mrs. Shuster of South Dakota.

Miss Margaret Baker left Tuesday

If Too Fat Get More Fresh Air

BE MODERATE IN YOUR DIET AND REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT. TAKE OIL OF KOREIN.

Lack of fresh air it is said weakens the oxygen carrying power of the blood, the liver becomes sluggish, fat accumulates and the action of many of the vital organs are hindered therefore. The heart action becomes weak, work is an effort and the beauty of the figure is destroyed.

Fat put on by indoor life is unhealthy and if nature is not assisted in throwing it off a serious case of obesity may result.
When you feel that you are getting too stout, take the matter in hand at once. Don't wait until your figure has become a joke and your health ruined through carrying around a burden of unsightly and unhealthy fat.

Spend as much time as you possibly can in the open air; breathe deeply, and get from City Book and Drug Store, 506 Main street, or Columbian Pharmacy, 123 South Fourth street, a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself every few days and keep up the treatment until you are down to normal. Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, helps the digestion and even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight.

SUES MADISON ON BIDS FOR PAVING

MADISON, Wis., July 21.—(Special.)—Asphalt paving in this city will be held up, temporarily at least, pending the settlement of a suit that has been started against the city by Ralph W. Jackman, a local attorney and taxpayer. He claims that the bids of the Hodson David company and the Williston Construction company were lower than those of the successful bidder, J. Rossmussen & Sons Company of Oshkosh and the Johnson Construction company. The board of public works did not open the bids of the Williston and the Hodson David company on the ground that they did not comply with the specifications.

MISS MAZERYK NOT TO DIE FOR HIGH TREASON

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Miss Alice Mazeryk, former Chicago social settlement worker, will not be executed for high treason in Austria, the state department announced on Thursday.

FERRIS REFUSES NOMINATION

LANSING, Mich., July 21.—Governor Ferris today definitely refused a third term nomination by the democratic party. His final decision was set forth in a telegram received today by Chairman Stevenson of the democratic state central committee, from the governor's home in Big Rapids.

From the time he is tall enough to reach the matches on the kitchen shelf a man's one joy in life seems to be to play with fire—bonfires, cigarets, firewater and love.

Preserving Season Is Here

Time to put up your grape and currant jelly, your plum jam and canned peaches, made after grandmother's recipe.

Also time to make sure that they will be preserved right. That needs perfect cooking—just the right amount of simmering heat.

You can be sure of your fire with a Gas Range. It never burns up or goes out. Never requires feeding in the midst of a delicate job of preserving. Never messes up the kitchenware with soot nor the kitchen with ashes.

You Can Make Better Preserves On a Gas Range

Better take time to pick out your Gas Range before you begin preserving. We will then install it for you—without any of the fuss or bother you probably imagine would take place. Look around our display room today and let us explain the latest models.
